Covering The Cardinals

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001–0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. They are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379–1821)

Credential Delivery

All credentials will be mailed if time allows. Otherwise, they may be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Arizona during normal working hours or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Media Stadium Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for press already holding credentials.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No free-lance photographers will be accommodated. No one except network television and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting U.S. West Communications, 602/630–6314, for lines, and AT&T, 1–800/555–8111, for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials or a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box during the fourth quarter.

Locker Room Locations

Both locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona dressing room is the first room on the right; the visitors' dressing room is at the end of the hallway. Arizona Head Coach Vince Tobin conducts his post-game interview in a separate interview room directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. The visiting head coach is available in proximity to his locker room.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media will be permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after the game participants have exited the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

There are 183 parking spaces in the Cardinals' press parking lot located just southwest of Sun Devil Stadium along the railroad tracks. Auxiliary parking for the media is located in the ASU parking garage just south of the stadium on Fifth Street.

FAX Service

Media needing FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to stop in the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room during their lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Vince Tobin Interviews

Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Tuesdays, the players' off day, Tobin conducts his interview session at approximately noon in the public relations department.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations office.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via conference call midweek, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

Bill Bidwill

President

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals, a relationship that began as a child ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president, is now in its fifth decade.

The 65-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility that the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He also has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on three NFL committees—Broadcasting Committee, Retirement Board Trustees (Bert Bell and Pete Rozelle Plans), and the Realignment Committee.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children.

Larry Wilson

Vice President

Larry Wilson, one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, has enjoyed a career that spans 37 years as a player and front-office executive.

A 1978 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team announced to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary.

A legendary defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, the 58-year-old Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active role in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book. He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), career interception returns for touchdowns (5), and single-game interception return yardage (115). His 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on Dec. 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia remains third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah. He was recruited to the Salt Lake City school by Ute assistant coach Andy Everest, father of new Cardinal special-teams coach Al Everest.

Wilson was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Vice President Larry Wilson, a Hall of Fame defensive back and a member of the NFL's all-time team, is synonymous with Cardinal football.

Vince Tobin

Head Coach

Small-town roots. Big-time success. That's new Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Vince Tobin.

A product of the northwest Missouri farming community of Burlington Junction—population 634—the 52-year-old Tobin was named the Cardinals' 35th head coach on February 7, 1996.

He arrives in the Grand Canyon State for his first head-coaching position armed with respect around the National Football League after coordinating two of the league's finest defenses at Indianapolis and Chicago. His dossier also includes Midwestern breadbasket values—humility, dignity, family, character, dedication, work ethic, and religion.

Small-Town Upbringing

Tobin learned life lessons as only a farm can teach. He milked cows before dawn. He baled hay. He tended cattle. He slept in an unheated bedroom. He and his six brothers and sisters never missed Sunday school. Chores preceded sports and other activities in the family pecking order.

Burlington Junction's streets did not have names. It didn't have high school football, either, so Tobin and his older brother by two years, Bill, now vice president and director of football operations for the Indianapolis Colts, commuted over 30 miles round trip to attend Maryville High School—the Spoofhounds—in order to participate in the sport that would shape both lives as adults.

Mizzou

Both eventually earned scholarships to the University of Missouri — Bill as a star running back, Vince as an undersized, overachieving defensive back.

Vince Tobin arrived in Columbia, Missouri in 1961 on a partial football scholarship. After Mizzou varsity Head Coach Dan Devine watched Tobin tackle Kansas Jayhawk running back and future NFL Hall of Famer Gale Sayers three times in the open field in a freshmen game, Tobin had earned a full scholarship.

He also learned how to win. During his four seasons in the Missouri program, the Tigers posted a 28–9–4 composite record. As a starter in 1963 and '64, Tobin helped Mizzou post back-to-back 7–3 and 6–3–1 campaigns while earning a bachelor's degree in education.

After contemplating the priesthood, Tobin opted for a coaching career, beginning his 29-year journey to the Cardinals at his alma mater in 1965 as a graduate assistant, a position that also eventually led to a master's degree in guidance and counseling. He remained at Missouri as a defensive assistant through the 1976 season, serving as defensive coordinator the final six years.

Coaching stops in the Canadian Football League (British Columbia Lions, 1977–82), the U.S. Football League (Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, 1983–85), and the National Football League (Chicago Bears, 1986–92, Indianapolis Colts, 1994–95) followed. All told, he served as a defensive coordinator for 18 professional seasons. His teams produced non-losing records in 16 of those 18 campaigns.

Tobin's CFL defenses ranked second overall during his six-year tenure. His USFL schemes helped the Stars rank first defensively in 1983 and '84 and second in '85 while allowing the fewest points all three seasons. En route, the Stars, coached by Jim Mora, the future New Orleans Saints' head man, reached the USFL championship game each season, winning the title the final two times.

Da Bears

As Chicago's defensive coordinator, Tobin tutored a Bears' defense that set an NFL record for fewest points in a 16-game season (187, 1986). His '86 Chicago unit topped the league by allowing just 258 yards total offense per contest. The 1987 Bears ranked first in rushing defense (94.2) while holding six opponents under 10 points. The 1988 Bears surrendered the league's fewest points (215) and sported the best rushing defense (82.9). Tobin also earned victories over Tampa Bay and Washington in '88 as Chicago's interim head coach for the ailing Mike Ditka.

The Colts

Tobin worked his magic again in Indianapolis in 1994–95, overseeing a Colt defense that was a principal cog in an Indianapolis resurgence. The Colts finished 9–7 during the 1995 regular season before defeating San Diego (35–20) and Kansas City (10–7) in the first two rounds of post-season play. They narrowly missed a trip to Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in a 20–16 loss to Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

Tobin earned credit for rebuilding the Colts' defense. The 1993 unit he inherited ranked last (28th) in overall defense. Tobin's first Indianapolis group improved to 20th in 1994 and tied for seventh with Carolina in 1995 at 314.2 yards per game.

In the four seasons prior to Tobin's arrival, the Colts' defense finished 24th or lower against the run. In 1994, Tobin's first Indianapolis defense ranked 12th against the rush, then improved further to sixth in 1995 at 91.1 yards per game, the second lowest figure in team history. It also was just the third time in Colt history the opposition averaged less than 100 yards per game on the ground.

In scoring defense, the Colts improved to 14th (tie) and fifth (19.8), respectively, in 1994 and '95 after ranking 27th in 1993.

Over the past two seasons, Tobin's defensive unit did not allow an individual to rush for 100 yards in 24 consecutive games (final 13 games of 1994, first 11 games of 1995).

His 1994 Colt defense also boasted the lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (40) in the NFL and did not allow a touchdown at home in the final three games of the season.

Personal

Born September 29, 1943, Tobin is married to the former Kathy Kautzman of Sidney, Montana. They have two children—son Ryan (Aug. 4, 1979), a junior at Brophy Prep in Phoenix, and daughter Shannon (Dec. 28, 1981), a freshman at Xavier Prep in Phoenix.

Jim Fassel

Offensive Coordinator

Jim Fassel brings 23 years of coaching experience to the Cardinals as their new offensive coordinator.

Fassel, who also will school the Cardinal quarterbacks, spent last season as quarterbacks coach of the Oakland Raiders following two campaigns (1993–94) as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos.

Under Fassel's guidance, Bronco quarterback John Elway enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1993, earning honors that included the American Football Conference player-of-the-year and most valuable player. Elway was the conference's starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl. Keyed by Elway, who led the AFC in all six major passing categories with 551 pass attempts, 348 completions, 63.2 completion percentage, 25 touchdown passes, 4,030 yards, and a 92.8 passer rating, the Bronco offense ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and scored 373 points to rank first in the conference and third in the league.

Prior to Denver, Fassel spent two seasons with the N.Y. Giants, first as quarterbacks coach (1991), then as offensive coordinator (1992).

A former collegiate quarterback, Fassel began coaching in 1973 at his alma mater, Fullerton College, then as a player-coach for the Hawaii Hawaiians of the World Football League (1974). He coached quarterbacks and receivers at Utah in 1976, then served seven seasons as offensive coordinator at both Weber State (1977–78) and Stanford (1979–83). At Stanford, Fassel was credited with recruiting and coaching Elway, who finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 1982 and concluded his college career as one of the most storied quarterbacks in NCAA history.

Fassel entered the pro arena in 1984 as offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Breakers of the USFL, then returned to Utah as the school's head coach from 1985–89 where he recruited and coached current Detroit Lion quarterback Scott Mitchell. En route to the NFL under Fassel's tutelage, Mitchell set 10 NCAA and five additional Western Athletic Conference records in addition to virtually every school passing record. Before entering the NFL Draft following his junior season, Mitchell completed 669 of 1,165 passes for 8,981 yards and 69 touchdowns. He averaged one touchdown pass every 9.6 completions as a Ute.

A native of Anaheim, Calif., Fassel was a standout quarterback at Anaheim High School before leading Fullerton College to a 25–1 record over two seasons and winning the junior college national championship in 1967. He also played collegiately at Southern California with Green Bay Packers' Head Coach Mike Holmgren and Long Beach State, leading the latter to a conference title in 1971.

He was drafted by Chicago in the seventh round of the 1972 NFL Draft and played briefly that season with the Bears, Houston, and San Diego.

Born August 31, 1949 in Anaheim,

Calif., Fassel and wife, Kathryn, have four children—John (Jan. 10, 1974), Brian (Dec. 22, 1975), Jana (Oct. 31, 1978), and Mike (June 19, 1981). John is a sophomore quarterback at Weber State.

Brian and Jana were ring bearer and flower girl, respectively, in Elway's 1984 wedding. In 1994, Fassel presented Elway at his induction into Stanford University's Sports Hall of Fame.

Dave McGinnis

Defensive Coordinator

Twenty-three season coaching veteran Dave McGinnis is the Cardinals' new defensive coordinator as a member of new Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin's staff for the third time.

McGinnis spent the past 10 seasons as linebackers coach with the Chicago Bears, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times as McGinnis was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense in 1986, 1987, and 1988.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Otis Wilson and Wilber Marshall, and middle linebacker Mike Singletary, who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage. The two players—Dante Jones and Joe Cain—who replaced Singletary following his retirement led the Bears in tackles the next three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, McGinnis spent 13 years coaching at the major-college level. His first assignment was as freshmen coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian, in 1973–74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri to coach the linebackers and secondary for Tobin, the Tigers' defensive coordinator. After spending the 1978 season at Indiana State as secondary coach, McGinnis returned to TCU in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983–85.

McGinnis was a three-time letterman (1970–72) and two-year starter (1971–72) at defensive back at TCU where he earned academic all-Southwest Conference honors twice (1971–72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the conference lead.

He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Christian.

Born August 7, 1951 in Independence, Kansas, McGinnis attended Snyder (Tex.) High School. His wife's name is Kim.

Geep Chryst

Tight Ends/Quality Control

George Patrick "Geep" Chryst joins the Cardinals as tight ends and quality control coach after five seasons with the Chicago Bears as director of research/quality control.

Chryst began his coaching career at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville (1987), joined the staff at Wisconsin for one season (1988), then moved to Wyoming to coach the offensive line (1989) and quarterbacks (1990). In 1991, he was the wide receivers/running backs coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League, and became the club's long-snapper for the 1992 playoffs.

A 1984 Princeton graduate with a degree in history, Chryst also has a master's degree in educational administration from Wisconsin. A three-year starter at linebacker as a Princeton undergraduate, Chryst also played baseball for two years.

He was born into an athletic family on June 25, 1962 in Madison, Wisconsin. His father, George, was the successful head football coach at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville from 1980–92. He was instrumental in the formation of the Wisconsin "Cheese League," the annual influx of NFL training camps to Wisconsin colleges, when he enticed the Chicago Bears to begin training at the Platteville campus in 1984. In 1980, George Chryst's first season as head coach, Platteville staged the greatest comeback in NCAA history, overcoming a 33–0 deficit to defeat Wisconsin-Eau Claire 52–43 for the Wisconsin State University Conference championship.

Brother Paul currently is an assistant coach with the Canadian Football League Saskatchewan Rough Riders. Brother Rick is assistant commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sisters Cathy and Dolly were track stars in college; the former was an AAU sprint champion, the latter competed at the University of Wisconsin.

Chryst's unique nickname is a truncation of the initials adorning his first Christmas stocking—"G.P." Chryst.

Chryst's wife, Shelley, was a scholarship volleyball player at Wyoming and played professionally in the two-player sand version (Women's Professional Volleyball Association) in 1994. She also was assistant volleyball coach at Northwestern (1994) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1995).

They are the parents of infant son Keller (Nov. 17, 1995).

Al Everest

Special Teams

Cardinals' special teams coach Alan "Al" Everest took a circuitous route to his first coaching position in the National Football League.

The product of a football family, Everest arrived in Arizona with 24 years of coaching experience on various levels and venues—the Canadian Football League (CFL), Italian Professional Football League, Arena Football League (AFL), and the Pro Spring Football League (PSFL)—as well as domestic and foreign experience at the college and high school levels.

Everest served as special teams coordinator for Head Coach Jack Pardee of the CFL Birmingham Barracudas in 1995. His special-teams units ranked among league leaders and were instrumental in the club's 10–8 record and a berth in the CFL playoffs in their inaugural season.

During four years (1988–90, 1993) at the professional level in Italy, Everest helped lead the Legnano Frogs to two national championships in three Italian title-game appearances and a combined record of 57–9 as the defensive coordinator. The Frogs won the European championship in 1989. Everest spent a fifth season in Italy as head coach of the Pesaro Angels in 1991.

Everest began his coaching career in 1972 at his alma mater, Southern Methodist, as a graduate assistant under defensive coordinator Bum Phillips. After two seasons as a graduate assistant at North Texas State (1973–74) and as defensive backs coach at Cameron (Okla.) University (1974–75), he spent the next five years as the athletic director at the American School Foundation in Mexico City where he developed the largest and most successful athletic program in the world for an accredited institution outside the United States. He served as head football coach, posting a 46–7 composite record and winning one national championship.

Seven seasons (1981–87) as head baseball coach at U.S. International, where he led the school to its first winning season at the Division I level, and his tour in the Italian Football League preceded his involvement in the Pro Spring Football League, the first (1991) as a league talent scout under Walt Michaels, the second (1992) as secondary coach for Arkansas Miners Head Coach Darryl Rogers, the former head coach at Arizona State University.

When the PSFL folded in 1992, Everest served as offensive coordinator on Head Coach Dick Nolan's staff with the San Antonio Force of the AFL.

Everest spent the next two seasons (1993–94) at Colony High School in Lewisville, Texas, helping lead the school to its first undefeated season and playoff appearance.

Everest's father, Andy, coached football for over 40 years, including three years with his son in Italy. In addition to American collegiate stops at Stanford, Utah, California-Santa Barbara, Southern Methodist, and North Texas State, he also served the latter as athletic director for three years and as an assistant on Head Coach Bum Phillips' staff with the New Orleans Saints. The senior Everest also recruited future Cardinal Hall of Fame defensive back Larry Wilson to Utah.

Everest's two brothers—Tom (Cal Poly) and Andy (North Texas State)—also played college football.

Born August 22, 1950 in El Paso, Texas, Everest attended San Marcos High School. He was a two-year starter at free safety for Head Coach Hayden Fry at Southern Methodist in 1970–71.

Everest holds a doctorate of education (U.S. International), a master's degree (North Texas State), and a bachelor's degree (Southern Methodist).

He and his wife, Melissa "Lee," who was raised in Phoenix, have two daughters, Michelle Katherine (Dec. 10, 1988), who was born in Legnano, Italy, and Kaycee Fae (April 11, 1996), who was born in Phoenix.

Joe Greene

Defensive Line

Charles Edward Greene, known as "Mean Joe" Greene to a generation of football fans, is the Arizona Cardinals' new defensive line coach.

Greene is a nine-season NFL coaching veteran. He tutored the Miami Dolphins' defensive line the past four seasons (1992–95) following five campaigns (1987–91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive line coach. During Greene's tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC's top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene's five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969–81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970–77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s."

In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca-Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene, who holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of North Texas, also has served on the school's board of trustees.

Born September 24, 1946 in Temple, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three grown children—sons Major and Deion, who both played football at North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel.

Larry Marmie

Defensive Backs

Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie, an assistant coach at UCLA and Tennessee the past four seasons, returns to the Valley as the Cards' new defensive backs coach.

Marmie brings 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals. The Barnesville, Ohio native spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992–94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988–91, posting a 22–21–1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985–87, a span that included ASU's 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky quarterback (1962–65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966) following his collegiate playing career before beginning his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (1967–68). A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968–71) followed before returning to EKU for five seasons (1972–76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977–78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979–82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983–84) where he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, born October 17, 1942 in Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky. He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and four grandchildren.

Carl Mauck

Offensive Line

Carl Mauck brings 25 years of NFL experience—13 seasons (1969–81) as a player and 12 campaigns as an assistant coach—to his new position as the Cardinals' offensive line coach.

During his 13-year playing career, Mauck started 155 consecutive games and played 156 consecutive contests at center. A 13th-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1969, he began his professional career humbly as an offensive lineman for the Harrisburg (Pa.) Cap-Colts, appearing in 11 games before being activated at the end of the '69 season by the Baltimore Colts.

He played for Miami in 1970 before being traded to San Diego in 1971. Mauck started four seasons (1971–74) at center for the Chargers, then was traded to Houston in 1975 where he was the Oilers' starting center until his retirement after the 1981 season. He anchored an offensive line which opened holes for Hall of Fame running back Earl Campbell and started seven playoff games for Houston.

Mauck, entered the coaching ranks immediately when his former Oiler head coach, Bum Phillips, added him to the Saints' coaching staff in 1982. After four seasons (1982–85) as the offensive line coach for Phillips, Mauck spent the next three seasons in a similar position with the Kansas City Chiefs (1986–88).

After two years in the lumber business in Missouri (1989–90), Mauck served as the offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, and since 1992 was San Diego's offensive line coach under Head Coach Bobby Ross during the Chargers' dramatic turnaround over the past four seasons.

Born July 7, 1947 in McLeansboro, Ill., Mauck attended McLeansboro Township High School and enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career at Southern Illinois University (SIU) as both a linebacker and center. He also played basketball as a freshman alongside former Saluki and NBA great Walt Frazier. Mauck graduated from SIU in 1969 with honors in business management. He also is enshrined in SIU's Sports Hall of Fame.

Mauck and his wife, Vicki, have four children—Tim (Aug. 24, 1972), Chrissy (Aug. 10, 1974), Teresa (Nov. 11, 1976), and Cathy (Feb. 8, 1980).

Glenn Pires

Linebackers

Glenn Pires, an assistant at Michigan State and Syracuse the last seven campaigns, joined the Cardinals' coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Pires served as outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State the past year following six seasons (1989–94) at Syracuse where he was defensive line coach the first two seasons and outside linebackers coach the last four. He also served the Orangemen as assistant recruiting coordinator for one year (1989).

Pires began his coaching career at Melrose (Mass.) High School (1980–82) before matriculating to Syracuse as a graduate assistant (1983–84). He spent four seasons (1985–88) at Dartmouth coaching linebackers and defensive linemen before returning to Syracuse.

He was a four-time letterman in football (offensive line) and track (hammer) at Springfield (Mass.) College where he earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1980. He also holds a master's degree in education from Syracuse.

Born September 13, 1958 in New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of daughter Jackie (Aug. 8, 1989) and son Michael (July 11, 1991).

Vic Rapp

Wide Receivers

New Arizona wide receivers coach Vic Rapp's football career has come full circle as he begins his third decade in the same state where it began—Arizona. He also unites with Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin for the third time.

Rapp's 30 years in the sport began as an assistant at the University of Arizona in 1965. Since that time, he has compiled seven seasons as a college assistant, 17 as a professional assistant (12 in the NFL), six as a head coach in the Canadian Football League, and one as an advance scout in pro personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rapp earned his first NFL assignment as running backs/tight ends coach with Houston in 1983, followed by similar positions with the L.A. Rams (1984), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86), and Detroit Lions (1987–88). After four seasons (1989–92) as wide receivers coach for the Chicago Bears staff that included Tobin, Rapp took a two-year hiatus from pro football before he was named a pro personnel scout for the Eagles in 1995.

After a year out of football, Rapp spent 1994 in the Division A German Football League as head coach of the Erding Bulls, located outside Munich. After assuming the coaching reins of the summer league squad following four early-season losses, he guided the Bulls to the playoffs.

Rapp entered the coaching fraternity in 1965 at Arizona as an offensive line assistant under Jim LaRue, then handled the passing game as an assistant at Missouri from 1967–71 when his path first crossed with Tobin. Following five seasons (1972–76) as the offensive coordinator of the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos, he was named head coach of the British Columbia Lions in 1977, compiling a 55–42–4 record in six seasons that included two conference championships.

Rapp played collegiate football at Southwest Missouri State as a guard and linebacker. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and guidance and counseling from Southwest Missouri State and two master's degrees from Arkansas—one in physical education, the other in guidance and counseling.

Born December 23, 1935 in Marionville, Missouri, Rapp and his wife, Carol, have three grown daughters—Rhonda, Paula, and Marla.

Jim Skipper

Running Backs

Jim Skipper, running backs coach of the New Orleans Saints the past 10 seasons (1986–95), is the Cardinals' new backfield coach.

In New Orleans, he tutored two Pro Bowlers—Reuben Mayes (1986–87) and Dalton Hilliard (1989). Skipper also coached former Arizona State University star Mario Bates the past two years when he gained 1,530 rushing yards in his first two professional seasons and just missed his first 1,000-yard campaign in 1995 with 951 yards.

Skipper, a graduate of Whittier College who played defensive back, kick returner, and punt returner in college, entered the professional coaching ranks as running backs coach for the USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983–85.

A Breaux Bridge, Louisiana native who was raised in Brawley, California near the Arizona border, Skipper opened his coaching dossier with one season (1973) at the high school level at Duarte (Calif.) High School. College stops at Cal Poly-Pomona (1974–76) and San Jose State (1977–78) as defensive backs coach followed before moving to offense (running backs) at Pacific (1979) and Oregon (1980–82).

Born January 23, 1949, Skipper and his wife, Elmarie, have three sons—Kelly (July 25, 1967), Timmy (April 15, 1978), and Courtney (March 29, 1981). Kelly, currently running backs coach at Fresno State, remains the school's fifth-ranked all-time rushing leader. Timmy, a linebacker, recently accepted a scholarship offer at Fresno State. Skipper and son Kelly both have coached New Orleans Saints running back Lorenzo Neal—son in college, father with the Saints.

Skipper holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Whittier College.

Bob Rogucki

Strength and Conditioning

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key), strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89, begins his seventh year in the same capacity for the Cardinals.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football, involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

Rogucki joined the staff at West Point after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college football player. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (March 27, 1980) and daughter Katie (Sept. 22, 1984).

Joe Woolley

Assistant to the President

Joe Woolley, a 20-year veteran of National Football League front office and coaching positions with Houston, New Orleans, Philadelphia, and Arizona, begins his second season with the Cardinals.

Woolley, 58, assists in various administrative capacities with primary responsibility for negotiating player contracts.

The Strong, Arkansas native entered the NFL as an assistant in charge of quality control for Houston from 1973–74 before coaching the Oilers' special teams in 1975. After a two-year stint in private business, he rejoined the Oilers as director of scouting from 1978–80.

He spent the next five seasons with New Orleans, the first three (1981–83) as a scout, the last two (1984–85) as director of scouting. While directing the Saints' scouting operation, Woolley was responsible for establishing an extensive film library which became a model for the NFL.

He spent 1986–93 in Philadelphia's front office as director of player personnel. Woolley's first five seasons with the Eagles were concurrent with former Cardinal head coach Buddy Ryan's tenure as Philadelphia's head man.

Woolley spent the 1994 season as director of player personnel and receivers coach for the Sacramento Gold Miners of the Canadian Football League.

Woolley also coached football, basketball, and baseball at Texarkana (Ark.) High School (1962–65) and Galveston (Tex.) Ball High School (1966–72), leading both schools to state playoff berths in football.

Woolley attended Oklahoma State where he lettered in football, baseball, and basketball (1960–61) while earning a bachelor's degree in education. He has a son, Scott, 32.

Bo Bolinger

Director of College Scouting

Long-time Cardinal scout Bo Bolinger was named the team's director of college scouting in February, 1994.

Prior to his promotion, Bolinger, now a 25-year member of the Cardinals' organization, had been primarily responsible for collegiate scouting in the West.

Before joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

A 1956 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, Bolinger played nine games of the 1956 season for the CFL Edmonton Eskimos before returning to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant.

After spending the 1957 season as head coach at Miami (Okla.) High School, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958–60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

A guard at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned consensus all-America recognition in 1955 during the Sooners' national championship season when they led the nation in rushing and total offense. Bolinger finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1955. He also was named all-Big Eight Conference twice.

Bolinger holds a bachelor's degree in history from Oklahoma.

The 63-year-old Bolinger, a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tempe, Arizona. They have three grown daughters—Sharon, Susan, and Sandra—and four grandchildren.

Keith Kidd

Pro Scout

Keith Kidd, 32, begins his sixth year with the Cardinals' organization.

Kidd began serving in a professional scouting capacity in 1994 following three campaigns as a staff administrative assistant.

Kidd's responsibilities include handling the recruitment of free agents under the NFL's collective bargaining agreement, overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, including World League talent, and offering input into personnel decisions concerning the club's acquisition of veteran talent through free agency, trades, and waivers.

He also coordinates training camp and shares contract negotiation responsibilities with Joe Woolley, assistant to the president.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Kidd coached defensive backs for two seasons (1989–90) at Arizona State under Head Coach Larry Marmie, the Cardinals' new defensive backs coach. Before joining the ASU staff, Kidd coached tight ends at Eastern Kentucky in 1988 under his father, Head Coach Roy Kidd, when the Colonels finished as an NCAA Division I-AA playoff semifinalist.

Raised in a football family, Kidd credits much of his football knowledge to his father, who leads all Division I-AA coaches with a .734 (266–94–8) career winning percentage. The senior Kidd, EKU's head coach the past 32 years, also ranks third in overall victories in NCAA Division I and I-AA, trailing only Grambling State's Eddie Robinson (402) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (278).

Born August 8, 1964 in Richmond, Kentucky, Kidd received his bachelor's degree in administration and master's degree in sports administration from Eastern Kentucky. He and his wife, Laura, reside in Phoenix.

Jim Carmody

Scout

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his second season as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Carmody, 63, completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994 in his second stint at Ole Miss.

Prior to rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line (1974–77) at Ole Miss before the Rebels' promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach, before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris.

Jerry Hardaway

Scout

Jerry Hardaway returns to the Cardinals' organization after a one-year hiatus as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers.

Hardaway, 44, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his eighth season with the Cardinals.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) where he also coordinated the Golden Bears' film exchange program and was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tenn. in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, Calif. prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (SIU) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from SIU with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974 and earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (9), and a daughter, Jheri (7). They reside in Cary, N.C.

Bob Mazie

Scout

Bob Mazie, with 32 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his third year as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh, Pa. from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1964–67 with the first of two stints at Southwestern Oklahoma State prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter is the Cards' first-year offensive line coach.

Mazie left SIU to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6–4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972–75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season passing record of 1,992 yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1976, where he compiled a 56–33–2 (.626) composite slate, the school record for winning percentage, over 10 seasons. He led the Bulldogs to their first undefeated season in 1977 while earning notoriety as the top-ranked NAIA Division I defense in the nation that season. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense six times (1977–79, '82–83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference tight end and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961–62 and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters—Penny, Mona, Lana, and Christy—and one son—Ken. They have 11 grandchildren.

Cole Proctor

Scout

Cole Proctor joined the Arizona Cardinals as a regional scout in 1994 with 24 seasons of college coaching experience on his resume.

Most recently the head coach at Morehead (Ky.) State from 1989–93, Proctor was named Ohio Valley Conference coach-of-the-year in 1990 when MSU's defense ranked eighth nationally and led the nation with 117 tackles for loss and 53 quarterback sacks.

Proctor returned to MSU from the position of assistant coach at Utah, where he had served since December, 1986. Prior to joining the Utah staff, he spent one season as an assistant coach at Iowa State.

He spent five seasons (1981–85) at San Diego State (SDSU) as an assistant coach after two seasons (1979–80) as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State. At SDSU, Proctor recruited and coached many athletes who later played in the NFL, most notably tight end Rob Awalt, the former Cardinal who was named NFC rookie-of-the-year in 1987.

Proctor had a successful tenure as head football coach and athletic director at Lees-McRae (N.C.) College for three years (1976–78). Prior to assuming the helm of the Lees-McRae program, he spent three years as head football coach at Keene (N.H.) High School and Chatham Township High School where he was named New Jersey coach-of-the-year by the Newark Star-Ledger.

Proctor was an assistant at Gardner-Webb for three seasons (1969–71) prior to one campaign (1968) as an assistant at Lees-McRae.

During the 1967–68 academic year, Proctor served as a graduate assistant at Morehead State.

Proctor earned a bachelor's degree with an area of concentration in health, physical education, and recreation from Morehead State in 1967, then earned a master's degree in physical education from the same school in 1968. He also has done graduate work at the University of South Carolina and Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Born June 25, 1942 in Meriden, Connecticut, Proctor and his wife Marti reside in Phoenix. They have two grown children, Susan and Tom, and one grandchild.

Jim Stanley

Scout

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (OSU), begins his first full season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983–84, he compiled a 22–14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12–6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He spent 1979 and '80 as defensive line coach for the New York Giants and Atlanta Falcons, respectively.

As the six-year (1973–78) head coach at OSU, the Cowboys posted a 35–33–2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9–3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at OSU.

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971–72), the U.S. Naval Academy, (1969–70) and Oklahoma State (1963–68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959–60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew.

John Omohundro

Head Trainer

John Omohundro begins his 30th season with the Cardinals and his 26th campaign as the team's head trainer.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, enjoyed a memorable 1993 season. They were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Following high school graduation, Omohundro was named head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. The following year, he enrolled at the University of Wyoming where he remained until joining the Cardinals in 1967.

He served as the Cards' assistant trainer for four seasons from 1967–70 before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

The Salt Lake City, Utah native, his wife Martha, their two college baseball-playing sons, John, 22, (New Mexico State) and Jim, 20, (Colorado Northwestern College), and daughter Neely (15) reside in Tempe, Arizona.

Jim Shearer

Assistant Trainer

Jim "Machine" Shearer enters his 23rd year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (19), and a daughter, Sarah (15). They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

Jeff Herndon

Assistant Trainer

Jeff Herndon enters his 11th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 35-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985–86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elsabeth Marie (3).

Benny Greenberg

Video Director

The nineteen ninety-six season marks Benny Greenberg's 31st year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 70, owned and operated photography stores until nine years ago in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and all practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work with the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

They have two grown sons—Mark and Barry, and two grandchildren.

Mark Ahlemeier

Equipment Manager

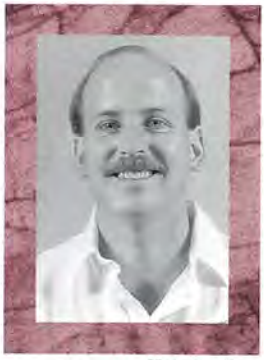
Mark Ahlemeier enters his 10th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding long-time (21 years) equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987 following six years as the club's assistant equipment manager.

Ahlemeier, 37, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have two children—daughter Mandy (9) and son Mark (5). They live in Tempe, Arizona.

Steve Christensen

Assistant Equipment Manager



Steve Christensen enters his ninth year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 37-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

An avid racquetball player and runner, Christensen ran in the 1984 Phoenix Marathon. He and his wife, Lauri, reside in Phoenix, Arizona with their daughter, Kelsey (4).

Running Back 37

5–11 • 215 • Seventh Year • Stephen F. Austin
Fifth Round (115th), 1990

✔Pro Career: One of the NFL's most versatile performers ... crowd-pleasing Pro Bowl running back with a never-say-die attitude... equally at home carrying or catching the football ... perhaps the NFL's top pass-catching running back ... became the first NFL running back to crack the 100-reception plateau when he made 101 grabs in 1995 ... that broke the previous record of 92 catches set by San Francisco's Roger Craig in 1985 ... it also established an overall Cardinal franchise single-season record, bettering wide receiver J.T. Smith's 91 receptions in 1987 ... since 1993, Centers has caught more passes (244) than any back in the league ... ditto since 1992 (294) ... the Cardinals leading receiver each of the past three seasons with 66 grabs in 1993, 77 catches in 1994, and 101 last year ... the first running back to lead the club in receiving for two or more consecutive campaigns ... led Cardinals with 66 catches in 1993, the first time a running back led the club in receiving since Terry Metcalf (50) in 1974 ... 77 receptions in 1994 broke the club mark for a running back held by Ottis Anderson (70, 1984) ... also superb special-teams player. ✔1995: Runaway Pro Bowl selection at fullback with 101 pass receptions for 962 yards (9.5-yard average) and 254 yards rushing on 78 attempts ... ranked first among running backs with 101 catches, ninth overall in the conference ... led the league in third-down receptions with 33 ... paced the Cardinals in receiving nine times in 16 games and caught five or more passes in 13 contests ... opened the season with 11 grabs in the first two outings ... snared five passes for 37 yards in 20–17 victory at Detroit (Sept. 17) ... wriggled, juked, and spun his way to 83 yards on seven receptions at Dallas (Sept. 24), including a 13-yard grab from quarterback Dave Krieg for a second-quarter touchdown ... harnessed for just two catches in first half vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1), but responded with seven receptions for 68 yards in the second stanza ... provided the spark when needed vs. Washington (Oct. 15) with inspirational runs, dodging tacklers and dragging others for extra yardage, and scoring on a nine-yard run in the third quarter to give Arizona a 17–13 lead en route to a 24–20 victory ... on that scoring drive, he accounted for 46 of the Cards' 85 yards with two third-down conversions on pass receptions of 20 yards on a third-and-14 situation and eight yards on third-and-five ... polished the drive with back-to-back runs of nine yards, taking the second into the end zone standing ... set the tone for another outstanding effort with a 23-yard gain on the game's first play in a 20–14 overtime win against Seattle (Oct. 29), then caught nine passes overall for 73 yards and collected 28 yards on eight rushing attempts ... after handling the ball just five times the previous week—three pass receptions, two rushes—in a loss at Carolina (Nov. 19), he turned in a superb effort with 13 carries for 62 yards and seven pass receptions for 101 yards vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) ... in the Cards' 11-play, 99-yard drive in the third quarter to tie the game at 37–37, Centers carried the ball three times and caught three passes for 39 yards, including a 12-yard gain on a third-and-six situation to keep the drive alive in the Cards' 40–37 overtime win ... collected six passes for 51 yards, including a 16-yard gain from quarterback Stoney Case, the rookie's first NFL pass completion vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30) ... led team with nine receptions at San Diego (Dec. 9) ... caught three passes for 34 yards and scored on a one-yard plunge at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) ... wowed a national television audience with 12 pass receptions for 172 yards in the season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25) on ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football" ... 93rd reception to break Craig's single-season mark of 92 came on a third-and-13 play in the second quarter, a 16-yard pass from Krieg ... three plays later, Centers took a Krieg toss in the right flat and bolted downfield for 29 yards that included a highlight-film hurdle of Cowboy cornerback and eventual Super Bowl XXX most valuable player Larry Brown ... Centers elevated nearly six feet in the air to clear Brown's bowed shoulder pads and helmet, landing on both feet and gaining a few more yards before being pushed out of bounds ... ABC-TV showed the "see-it-to-believe-it" replay numerous times during the telecast ... Centers also caught a 16-yard toss from running back Garrison Hearst in the third quarter on an option play. ✔1994: Proved indispensable in the club's offensive scheme ... elected offensive captain by his teammates prior to the season ... voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl at fullback (behind Dallas Cowboy Daryl Johnston) ... led all NFL running backs with 647 receiving yards ... 77 receptions tied for second with Denver's Glyn Milburn (77–549) and was just one reception behind the league leader at the position, Green Bay Packer Edgar Bennett (78–546) ... also finished season as club's number two rusher with 336 yards on 115 carries (2.9-yard average) and paced the team with five rushing touchdowns, seven overall ... collected 29 yards rushing on 15 attempts and caught two passes for 17 yards, including a three-yard scoring toss from quarterback Steve Beuerlein, in season opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 4) ... also involved in a remarkable play when a first-quarter pass from Beuerlein popped out of Centers' hands and into those of Ram cornerback Todd Lyght, who raced 74 yards for a touchdown in 14–12 defeat ... snared eight passes for 62 yards at Cleveland (Sept. 18) ... led club with nine grabs for 66 yards and sealed 17–7 victory over Minnesota (Oct. 2) with six-yard touchdown run midway through fourth quarter ... converted four third-down situations and accounted for seven first downs overall

(six receiving, one rushing) in the victory ... caught six aerials for 66 yards in 19–16 overtime victory at Washington (Oct. 16), highlighted by a pair of 20-yard gains in the fourth-quarter drive that tied the game ... accounted for 59 of the 72 yards on the scoring drive (four receptions for 58 yards, one rush for one yard) ... opened the scoring in the first quarter with four-yard burst into the end zone in 20–17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... 40 yards on the ground in the second half and led the team with six pass receptions in 12–6 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... set career-best mark with 10 receptions (59 yards) vs. Chicago (Nov. 27) ... punched the ball into the end zone on a one-yard plunge and slipped through for another score from four yards out to key Arizona's 30–12 triumph at Houston (Dec. 4) ... hit pay dirt via the ground (10-yard draw play) and through the air (10-yard reception) in Cards' 28–7 win over Cincinnati (Dec. 18), the latter on an option pass from Hearst ... four catches that day broke Anderson's former club record for receptions by a running back. ✔1993: Stamped his mark as one of the top third-down "go-to" players in the NFL with 66 pass receptions for 603 yards (9.1-yard average) and three touchdowns ... ranked second in receiving among NFC running backs behind Philadelphia's Herschel Walker (75) ... Centers' 603 receiving yards ranked just behind Walker's 610 ... finished season impressively with 28 catches for 283 yards in final four games ... turned short pass into 27-yard scoring play at Philadelphia (Sept. 5) ... with Johnny Bailey (groin) and Hearst (knee) sidelined, provided needed spark with four receptions for 46 yards and one score and added career-best 59 yards rushing on just six attempts, including a 33-yard dash, in 16–3 victory vs. Eagles (Nov. 7) ... led all receivers with seven catches for 59 yards at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... started at H-back at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) and contributed 52 yards rushing on 11 attempts and four pass receptions for 25 yards ... then career-high nine pass receptions for 77 yards vs. Detroit (Dec. 12), including 25-yarder, to set up Cards' second touchdown of the game ... collected 84 yards on five catches for 16.8-yard average in 17–6 victory over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) ... caught eight aerials for 61 yards, including five in the second half, in 27–10 win at Atlanta (Jan. 2) ... contributed 13 tackles on special teams, including four stops inside the 20-yard line. ✔1992: Superb season with 50 pass receptions for 417 yards (8.3-yard average) and two touchdowns along with 139 yards rushing on 37 attempts (3.8-yard average) ... the 50 receptions rank in seventh-place tie with Metcalf (1974) for most receptions by running back in team history ... season-long 28-yard reception vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13) ... snared seven passes for 64 yards at Dallas (Sept. 20) ... snared five aerials for 36 yards, including game-winner on nine-yard toss from Chris Chandler with 41 seconds left, for a 27–24 victory over Washington (Oct. 4) ... with Johnny Johnson (chest) inactive, lugged ball career-high 14 times for 30 yards at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) ... collected five passes for 28 yards, including two-yard scoring toss vs. Dallas (Nov. 22) ... grabbed seven pass receptions for 63 yards at Washington (Nov. 29) ... grabbed seven passes for 87 yards with season-long 26-yarder vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) ... also contributed eight tackles on special teams along with team-high four tackles inside the 20-yard line on kick-coverage units. ✔1991: Authored impressive all-round season with 44 yards rushing on 14 attempts (3.1-yard average), 19 pass receptions for 176 yards (9.3-yard average), 5 punt returns for 30 yards (six-yard average), and 16 kickoff returns for 330 yards (20.6-yard average) ... though seeing only limited playing time, caught at least one pass in each of final seven games ... played in first two contests, then suffered broken metatarsal in left foot during Sept. 11 practice ... placed on injured reserve list Sept. 12 ... spent six weeks out of action ... reactivated Oct. 30 ... returned to provide four catches for 28 yards and carried once from scrimmage for six yards at Dallas (Nov. 3) ... snared three more passes for 48 yards and rushed one time for

Francisco (Nov. 17) ... returned opening kickoff 39 yards out of the end zone vs. Washington (Dec. 8), nearly breaking it for a 102-yard touchdown ... also added seven rushing tries for 16 yards ... caught career-high five passes for 41 yards in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) ... added four stops on special teams. ✔1990: Earned roster spot but was on inactive list for nine contests ... played in six games ... returned 16 kickoffs for 272 yards (17-yard average) with long return of 26 yards ... in first duty as return man, averaged 23 yards on three tries at Miami (Nov. 11) ... posted 17-yard mark on a trio of attempts at Atlanta (Dec. 9) ... tied club single-game mark with seven kickoff returns at Dallas (Dec. 16) for a 17.6-yard average ... those returns tied record held by Willie Carter (1953), Metcalf (1977), and Stump Mitchell (twice in 1981) ... did not carry ball from scrimmage ... added three stops on special teams coverage units.

✔College/Personal: Two-time all-Southland Conference pick with career total of 2,607 yards rushing, 23 touchdowns, 106 pass receptions, 1,460 receiving yards, and 7 touchdowns ... set school mark with 315 carries for 1,440 yards and recorded 58 receptions for 893 yards as senior ... began college career as a wide receiver, but a broken little finger on his left hand prompted Centers' fortuitous move to running back ... marketing major ... born June 1, 1968 in Tatum, Texas, population 400, a tiny coal-mining town located in the northeast corner of the Lone Star state ... attended Tatum High School ... played bass violin instead of football from junior high school until senior year of high school to placate his mother ... resides in Tempe, Arizona with wife Vanessa, son Larry, Jr. (Aug. 16, 1991), and daughter Sydni (Feb. 27, 1995).

Greg Davis

Place Kicker 5

6–0 • 205 • Tenth Year • The Citadel
Plan B Free Agent (Atlanta), 1991

✔Pro Career: One of the more consistent, reliable, "big play" kickers in the NFL ... author of the six longest field goals in Cardinal history—55 (twice), 54, 53, and 52 (twice) yards ... finished 1994 and '95 seasons as one of the NFL's hottest kickers ... converted 13 of last 14 attempts, including a franchise-record 11 consecutively, in '94 ... made 16 of 19 to close '95 ... successful on 29 of 33 efforts (87.9 percent) to complete the past two seasons ... 30 field goals in 1995 established a club single-season mark ... with 41 field goals in 54 attempts over 1993–94 seasons (75.9 percent), he claims the best two-season success by a Cardinal kicker in nearly 20 years ... Jim Bakken connected on 39 of 51 tries (76.5 percent) during the 1975–76 campaigns ... Davis bettered that mark with 76.9 percent (30 of 39) accuracy last year for a 1994–95 combined figure of 75.4 percent (52 of 69) ... became first player in franchise history to convert over 75 percent of his field goal attempts for two, then three consecutive seasons ... Plan B coup by the Cardinals who signed him February 21, 1991 ... originally selected in the ninth round of 1987 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay ... played previously with Atlanta (1987–89) and New England (1989). ✔1995: Turned in another impressive effort with 109 points, more than tripling the point total of any other Cardinal ... wide receiver Rob Moore was runner-up with 32 points ... fourth-best point total in club history and the most since kicker Neil O'Donoghue's franchise single-season record-tying 117 points in 1984 ... 30 field goals broke Bakken's 1967 single-season mark of 27 ... finished second in the NFC behind Atlanta's Morten Andersen (31 of 37) ... kicked field goals of 21 and 29 yards vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) and recovered his own on-sides kick, a play nullified by penalty ... nailed franchise-tying 55-yarder and a 41-yard field goal near the end of the first half to bring the Cards within 10–6 at Detroit (Sept. 17), then punched two more through from 25 yards away in the fourth quarter to cut the margin to 17–12 en route to the Cards' 20–17 triumph ... it marked the fourth four-field goal game of his career ... the 55-yarder tied his own club mark set in 1994 ... booted 48-yarder for the Cards' only points in 24–3 loss to Kansas City (Oct. 1) ... excellent placement on kickoffs as Chiefs' talented return specialist Tamarick Vanover managed just two returns for 17 yards ... converted 24-yard field goal in first quarter and made two tackles of Redskin returner Brian Mitchell on kickoff coverage ... kicked a 39-yard field goal and two 44-yarders vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... against Atlanta (Nov. 26), came through with four field goals, including the game-winner from 28 yards in overtime, after slipping on a potential game-winning 45-yard attempt as time expired in regulation ... booted four field goals at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) for the seventh time in his career with kicks from 35, 37, 35, and 37 yards ... attempt for a game-winning fifth field goal at the two-minute warning fell just short in the cold air at Veterans Stadium ... field goals of 21 and 23 yards in season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ✔1994: Thrived on pressure kicks, winning two games with last-minute field goals, sending another into overtime, and accounting for the deciding points in five of the team's eight victories ... connected on 20 of 26 attempts (76.9 percent) and booted all 17 extra-point tries ... converted 11 consecutive field goals during games 10–14 to establish a club standard, bettering the previous club mark of 10 straight held jointly by Al Del Greco (1989) and Bakken (1975, '65–66) ... missed two games with a hamstring pull ... opened season with three consecutive field goals, the same way he ended the 1994 campaign, for a stretch of six straight before 49 and 58-yarders at Cleveland (Sept. 18) fell short ... kicked a 42-yarder off the upright to avert a shutout in Cards' 38–3 loss at Dallas (Oct. 9), but on the ensuing kickoff pulled a hamstring in his left leg attempting to chase down Cowboy speedster Kevin Williams on his 87-yard touchdown return ... inactive at Washington (Oct. 16) and vs. Dallas (Oct. 23) as free agent Todd Peterson stepped in for two games to convert two of four field goals, including a 29-yarder in overtime, in Cards' 19–16 triumph at R.F.K. Stadium ... in first game back from injury vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 30), connected on 20-yard try in second quarter, pushed a 26-yarder wide left in the third quarter, then atoned for that miss when he boomed a 51-yarder through the uprights in overtime of the thrilling 20–17 win ... that kick tied the league's overtime record for longest field goal, a mark Davis established with New England in 23–20 victory over Indianapolis (Oct. 29, 1989) ... ironically, the two kicks occurred one day short of five years apart ... knocked home a 45-yarder into the wind in Giants Stadium (Nov. 13), then converted the game-winning extra point with less than two minutes left in 10–9 victory over the N.Y. Giants, the Cards' first win in the Meadowlands since 1983 ... booted field goals of 24, 24, 24, and 39 yards—one in each quarter—to account for all the scoring of 12–6 win vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... kept Arizona in the game with kicks of 49, 22, and 47 yards vs. Chicago (Nov. 27), the latter with 58 seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime in Cards' 19–16 loss ... came through in pressure-cooker situation with 27-yard field goal as time expired in 17–15 win over Washington (Dec. 11) to run streak to 11 consecutive field goals ... saw the skein end when a 51-yard try near the end of first half fell short vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 18). ✔1993: Rebounded from sub-par 1992 season to become just the third Cardinal to score 100 points in a season since 1973, and the first since kicker Neil O'Donoghue in 1984 ... no kicker in Cardinal history booted more field goals with as much accuracy in one season than Davis in 1993 with 21 field goals in 28 attempts for 75 percent accuracy ... a perfect 13-for-13 inside 40 yards, joining Detroit's Jason Hanson (24), Minnesota's Fuad Reveiz (22), and New Orleans' Morten Andersen (16) as the only NFL kickers to be flawless inside 40 yards ... also flashed impressive leg strength with four field goals of 50 yards or more ... prior to 1993, only 10 players in NFL history had converted four or more field goals from 50 yards or farther in one season ... Davis was one of seven league kickers to accomplish the feat in 1993 ... experienced odyssey-like weekend when Cards traveled to Washington for Sept. 12 date against Redskins ... stayed in Phoenix with pregnant wife, Shauna, as team left on charter flight Saturday morning ... when wife gave birth to their first child, daughter Savannah Katelin (six pounds, three ounces), at 9:57 p.m. that night, he caught the last red-eye flight to Washington ... arrived at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning in time for the pre-game meal ... proceeded to kick franchise-record

53-yard field goal in first quarter of 17–10 Cardinal victory, the club's first triumph in R.F.K. Stadium since 1978 ... broke that record two weeks later with 54-yard boot at Detroit (Sept. 26) ... nailed field goals of 23 and 45 yards in 36–6 victory over Redskins at Sun Devil Stadium (Oct. 17) ... connected from 23, 20, and 29 yards in first half of 16–3 win vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... hero at Seattle (Dec. 19) when he booted a 50-yard field goal in fourth quarter for 24–20 Cardinal lead, a franchise-record 55-yarder on final play of regulation to send game into overtime at 27–27, then a 41-yarder with 6:54 left in the extra period for 30–27 victory ... the two 50-yard field goals in one game equalled a league record ... converted tries from 20 and 29 yards in 27–10 victory at Atlanta (Jan. 2) in season finale ... with 15 touchbacks on 71 kickoffs, opponents' 19.5-yard kickoff-return average ranked fifth lowest in NFC. ✔1992: Production slipped as he connected on 13 of 26 field-goal attempts, though perfect on 28 extra points for a total of 67 points ... worked with new long snapper (Danny Villa) and holder (Chris Chandler) for second straight season ... missed first field goal attempt in 15 tries from inside 40 yards as a Cardinal (24-yarder at Philadelphia, Oct. 25) ... managed 12 touchbacks in 56 kickoffs, compared to 23 touchbacks in 77 kickoffs in 1990 ... opened season in auspicious form as he answered the bell for punter Rich Camarillo (pulled leg muscle) with four punts for 41.8-yard average, including a long of 52 yards and net average of 38.8 yards per boot ... converted field goals from 22 and 42 yards at Dallas (Sept. 20) and sailed two kickoffs for touchbacks while two others were returned for only nine combined yards ... also executed successful on-sides kick late in game ... suffered hamstring pull during pre-game warm-ups vs. Washington (Oct. 4), took off uniform, and planned to watch punter Camarillo return the favor from season opener and handle all place-kicking duties ... after Camarillo missed an extra point following the first Phoenix score mid-way through third period, Davis asked to dress again, and in thrilling comeback victory, gingerly converted three extra points for the margin of victory in 27–24 triumph ... returned to form with four impressive kickoffs vs. New Orleans (Oct. 18), one sailing nine yards deep for a touchback, while the other three were returned for an average of just 12.3 yards ... misfired from 29 yards vs. San Francisco (Nov. 1), but nailed 33-yarder on final play of the first half to give Phoenix a 10–0 lead in 24–14 win ... connected on efforts from 21 and 32 yards in 20–14 win at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8) ... hit 26-yard field goal and did fine job on kickoffs as Giants began three of four drives on their own 20, 15, and 21 yard lines in 19–0 Phoenix shutout win ... hit from 28 and 48 yards out in Indianapolis (Dec. 20), the second with just 4:14 left in the game to pull Phoenix even at 13–13 ... it marked the first time in six games he made two field goals in the same contest ... toiled in miserable field conditions in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) as he converted 21-yarder, but misfired from 48, 43, and 33 yards ... in that game, Bucs' kicker Eddie Murray also struggled with misses from 40, 33, and 36 yards on the sandy surface of Sun Devil Stadium. ✔1991: Converted 21 of 30 field-goal attempts and all 19 points-after-touchdown for 82 points ... sailed 11 of 54 kickoffs for touchbacks ... one of just six NFL kickers who didn't misfire from inside 40 yards with perfect 13–13 marksmanship ... 70 percent (21–30) success rate tied Pat Harder (seven for 10 in 1947) for sixth on club single-season accuracy list ... more importantly, only legendary Bakken (23 for 32, 72 percent in 1973) kicked as many field goals with as much accuracy in club history ... booted three field goals of 50 yards or more ... iced season-opening win at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) with 32-yarder with 2:45 remaining in 24–14 victory ... connected on all four attempts (22, 28, 42, and club-tying 52 yards) and a pair of points-after-touchdown for season-high 14 points in 26–10 victory at Philadelphia (Sept. 8) ... converted from 32, 32, and 29 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 22) ... kicked three more field goals at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6), including another 52-yarder ... hit three-pointers from 29, 51, and 49 yards against former teammates in 16–10 victory over Atlanta (Oct. 20) in addition to booming kickoffs high and deep as return specialist Deion Sanders was limited to 16.7-yard average on three returns ... endured three-game stretch without attempting field goal (games nine-11) ... short on 52-yard attempt at Denver (Dec. 15), but converted tries from 33, 45, 28, and 38 yards, the last with 7:45 left in the game, to put Cards ahead before Denver quarterback John Elway led miraculous comeback drive for victory ... also boomed season-best three of six kickoffs for touchbacks vs. Broncos. ✔1990: Enjoyed fine season for Atlanta with 106 points, fifth best in conference, and third-highest total in Falcon history ... connected on 22 of 33 field goals ... perfect on all 40 points after touchdown ... also boomed 23 of his 77 kickoffs for touchbacks, resulting in 16.6-yard opponent kickoff-return average, the third-best mark in the NFL ... connected on all four attempts from 39, 39, 36, and 51 yards in 47–27 win over Houston in season opener ... provided team's only points, converting three of five attempts in 21–9 loss at Pittsburgh (Nov. 4) ... booted three more field goals vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 18), including career-long 53-yarder ... 18 field-goal tries of 40 or more yards surpassed only by Chicago's Kevin Butler (20), while only Butler (12) and perennial New Orleans Pro Bowler Morten Andersen (11) converted more from that range than Davis (8) in NFC. ✔1989: Signed with New England as Plan B free agent (nine games) ... finished season in Atlanta (six games)... scored 61 points on 16–23 field goals and 13–16 points-after-touchdown for Patriots ... nailed field goals of 30, 34, and 43 yards in 23–13 victory over Houston (Oct. 8) ... again hit for the hat trick as a Patriot at Atlanta against his past and future teammates with a 52-yarder and a pair of 32-yarders the following week (Oct. 15) ... the 52-yarder was an Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium record ... provided long-range fireworks with three-pointers from 47 and 48 yards at Indianapolis (Oct. 29) in regulation time ... boomed 51-yard field goal with 9:57 gone in overtime for 23–20 Patriot victory ... waived Nov. 7 following missed field goal and extra point in 27–26 loss to N.Y. Jets (Nov. 5) ... after injury to Atlanta kicker Paul McFadden, signed with Falcons (Nov. 14) and scored 33 points over final six games with seven-11 field goals and 12–12 points after touchdown ... made three field goals vs. Washington (Dec. 17) ... closed season hitting eight of 10 tries for Falcons. ✔1988: Scored 82 points for most by Falcon since 1985 ... booted 19 of 30 field-goal tries and 25 of 27 points after touchdown ... authored two games with three field goals—vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 23) and at New Orleans (Dec. 18) ... boomed season-long 52-yarder in 20–0 shutout of Green Bay (Nov. 6) ... helped earn roster spot with 53-yard field goal in preseason game vs. New England. ✔1987: Originally ninth-round (246th) selection by Tampa Bay in NFL Draft ... released on final roster cut, then signed with Atlanta for replacement games during players' strike ... converted three of four field goals and all six points-after-touchdown in three contests with long field goal of 42 yards. ✔College/Personal: Originally a walk-on at The Citadel ... earned a scholarship and led NCAA Division I-AA punters with 44.1-yard average in 1986 ... set six school records, including 76 consecutive points-after-touchdown and an 81-yard punt ... finished collegiate career with 263 points, second in school history behind former Cardinal tailback Stump Mitchell ... played in 1986 Senior Bowl ... all-county selection at Lakeside High School in Atlanta ... also won three letters as member of soccer team ... learned rudiments of kicking from his mother, Dr. Kay Davis, a former physics teacher who schooled her

Unrestricted Free Agent (Philadelphia), 1994

✔Pro Career: One of the NFL's top finesse punters adept at dropping kicks inside the opponent's 20-yard line ... unselfish punter ... finally honored with his first Pro Bowl last year ... has pinned opponents at or inside their own 20-yard line 196 times in eight seasons, an average of over 24 per year ... has led the National Football Conference in boots inside-the-20 four times—1991 (29), 1992 (26), 1993 (31), and 1994 (33) ... the 1993 total of 31 led the entire NFL ... originally signed with New England as a free agent in 1988 ... signed as unrestricted free agent with the Cardinals on March 2, 1994 to replace Pro Bowler Rich Camarillo ... ironically, Feagles unseated Camarillo as a rookie with New England in 1988 ... a Phoenix native and resident of Scottsdale, Ariz. ... attended now-defunct Gerard High School and Scottsdale Community College. ✔1995: Concluded first Pro Bowl season ranked first in the NFC in net punting with a 38.2-yard mark (third in the league) ... second in the conference with a 43.8-yard gross average ... 20 punts inside the 20-yard line were his fewest in six seasons ... net and gross marks were career bests ... posted 51-yard average on three boots in the home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... followed with an impressive 47.8-yard gross mark and 44-yard net figure in 20–17 victory at Detroit (Sept. 17) ... registered 44.7-yard gross mark in 24–20 win against Washington (Oct. 15) with two touchbacks and one inside the 20-yard line against Redskins' dangerous return specialist Brian Mitchell ... after only five inside-the-20 efforts in the first seven games, responded with four in 20–14 overtime win against Seattle (Oct. 29) with 44.8 gross and 41.1 net marks ... took advantage of the mile-high air at Denver (Nov. 5) to post a 50.8-yard average on four tries ... harnessed Falcons' return threat Eric Metcalf to just 10 yards on three combined returns with 48.3-yard gross and 45.8-yard net numbers to assist a 40–37 overtime win against Atlanta (Nov. 26) ... earned first NFC special teams player-of-the-week honor ... punted seven times for 44.3-yard average as Chargers' Andre Coleman, the AFC's top punt returner, was held to two returns for five yards and three fair catches before breaking a 25-yarder in the fourth quarter ... dropped four of five punts inside the 20 at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) ... kicked four times for 41.8-yard mark vs. Dallas (Dec. 25) as Deion Sanders and Kevin Williams managed just one fair catch while the other two punts were downed. ✔1994: Finished with conference-best and Cardinal record 33 punts inside the 20-yard line ... posted 40.8-yard average on 98 punts for 3,997 yards and a 36-yard net mark, the latter the second best of his seven-year career ... accorded all-pro mention by USA Today ... 10 touchbacks nearly doubled his previous six-year average of 5.8 per season ... 98 punts were the most in the NFC and seven more than his previous single-season high of 91 as a rookie with New England in 1988 ... consistency and accuracy enabled Arizona to limit opponents to a punt-return average of just 6.8 yards per kick, fifth in the league ... the longest punt return he allowed was only 16 yards, an NFL best ... authored 45.6-yard average on five boots vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) with 38-yard net mark as the Giants' dangerous return specialist Dave Meggett collected just 18 yards on three combined returns and one fair catch ... dropped three of five kicks inside the 20-yard line at Dallas (Oct. 9), including boots of 46 and 48 yards ... impressed with 46.3-yard average at R.F.K. Stadium (Oct. 16), including punts on the Cards' first six possessions, but saw three boots sail into the end zone for touchbacks, the first time he's had three roll into the end zone in his seven-year career ... with Arizona down 14–9 in the fourth quarter, took an intentional safety for 16–9 Washington advantage, then punted the ball 67 yards to the Redskin 13-yard line ... following a Washington punt, the Cards drove 72 yards to the end zone to send the game into overtime at 16–16 in eventual 19–16 victory ... in 20–17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30), boomed a 53-yarder with three minutes left to pin the Steelers at their own 17-yard line, a possession that resulted in a field goal rather than the game-winning touchdown drive ... in first return to Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium (Nov. 6), shanked his first punt just seven yards but rebounded to drop three of the next five inside the Eagles' 20-yard line ... avoided his first blocked punt since 1991 in 10–9 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13) as a Giant defender slipped through the line, only to watch Feagles scamper for a 12-yard gain and a first down ... posted 38.7-yard net average with four of six punts inside the 20-yard line in 30–12 triumph at Houston (Dec. 4) ... registered two punts inside the 20 and forced Washington's Mitchell to fair catch two other kicks and return two more just 19 yards in 17–15 win against Washington (Dec. 11) ... closed his first season with Arizona by placing four boots inside the 20 in season finale at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ✔1993: In final season as an Eagle, led the NFL with 31 punts inside the 20-yard line, falling just short of the league record of 33 set by Buffalo's John Kidd in 1985 ... opponents scored only once following those 31 punts ... for the season, posted 40-yard average per kick on 80 punts with 35.3-yard net mark ... also gained six yards as a holder on fake field goal but was short of the first down yardage vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) ... credited with one rushing attempt for no yards after a bad center snap vs. New Orleans (Dec. 26). ✔1992: Ranked first in the NFC and third in the league with 26 punts inside the 20-yard line ... posted career-best 42.4-yard gross punting average on 82 kicks ... earned a game ball with career-best 52.8-yard average on four efforts in 31–7 victory vs. Dallas (Oct. 5), including a 63-yard boot ... credited with five punts for a 51.2-yard average and 45-yard net mark in 36–20 first-round playoff win at New Orleans (Jan. 3) ... registered 40.9-yard effort with three kicks inside the 20 in 34–10 second-round loss at Dallas (Jan. 10). ✔1991: Led the NFL with 29 punts inside the 20 ... ranked seventh in the conference with 41.8-yard gross average on 87 punts ... received game ball following a 61-yard punt late in game at Cleveland (Nov. 10) that forced Browns' returner Webster Slaughter to retreat into his own end zone where he fumbled the ball to the Eagles to set up the game-winning touchdown in a 32–30 victory ... rocketed a career-long 77-yard punt at Dallas (Sept. 15) ... "disaster quarterback" in absence of a third quarterback for games six and seven when Jim McMahon was sidelined with an injury and Brad Goebel and Pat Ryan split the quarterback chores. ✔1990: Acquired by Eagles via waivers from New England on June 5 while incumbent John Teltschik was rehabilitating a knee injury ... posted 42-yard average on 72 punts to rank sixth in the NFC with 20 punts inside the 20-yard line ... also served as holder for field goals and extra points ... booted three punts over 50 yards at Washington (Oct. 21) ... posted impressive 53.5-yard gross and 48.5-yard net average on two efforts in 31–13 victory vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 25) ... punted seven times for 39.1-yard average in a 20–6 first-round playoff loss vs. Washington (Jan. 5). ✔1989: Called upon for 63 punts ... two touchbacks were the fewest among NFL punters with 60 or more kicks ... averaged 38 yards per punt with a 31.3-yard net mark and 24 punts inside the 20. ✔1988: Signed as a free agent with New England on May 1 ... unseated Camarillo, who had handled the Patriots' punting duties for seven seasons (1981–87) ... ironically, Camarillo later played for the Cardinals for five seasons (1989–93) ... finished third in the AFC (fifth in NFL) with 24 punts inside the 20 ... posted a 38.3-yard average and 34.1-yard net mark to earn all-rookie honors ... 74-yard boot in 21–17 win vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 2) was the league's longest of the season. ✔College/Personal: Registered a 40.8-yard average on the Miami Hurricanes' undefeated 1987 national championship team ... in the Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma to clinch the national title, his final punt for the 'Canes was a career-best 68-yard boomer ... during his stay at Miami, the Hurricanes compiled records of 10–2 in 1985, 11–1 in 1986, and 11–0 in 1987 ... transferred to Miami after one year at Scottsdale Community College ... won six letters in baseball, football, and basketball at now-closed Gerard High School in Phoenix ... played safety and punted as prep football star ... earned all-league honors in baseball as a pitcher and third baseman his senior season ... a generous philanthropist ... joined defensive lineman Michael Bankston and linebacker Garth Jax as one of three Cardinal nominees for the 1995 "True Value/NFL Man-of-the-Year Award" ... member of the executive board of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Arizona ... plays host to the Jeff Feagles Celebrity Golf Classic in Phoenix each off-season to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) ... the 1996 event raised $210,000 for MDA, bringing the five-year total to almost $600,000 ... held the Jeff Feagles Celebrity Black Tie Bowl in 1994–95, raising another $28,000 for MDA ... in his last season as an Eagle, he was involved with Punts For Pediatrics, a matching-funds pledge campaign through which he donated $100 for each punt inside the 20-yard line ... born March 7, 1966 in Anaheim, Calif. ... resides in Scottsdale with his wife, Michelle, and sons Christopher (Dec. 18, 1990) and Blake (Dec. 28, 1993).

✔Pro Career: Considered one of the top middle linebackers in the NFL ... thick, muscular physique makes him a prototype inside linebacker ... seven solid and productive seasons to his professional resume with 769 tackles ... starter in 102 of 106 professional outings ... shouldered the duty of signal-caller in complex "46" defensive scheme in 1994–95 ... logged career-best 143 tackles in 1994 to earn Pro Bowl alternate status ... 136 tackles last year ... eclipsed the century mark in tackles four of the past five seasons. ✔1995: Concluded season with team-best 136 tackles despite missing two contests ... made eight or more tackles on eight occasions, including five of final six games of season ... named all-pro second team by Football Digest ... matched career single-game best with 20 stops (13 solos) at Carolina (Nov. 19) ... credited with eight tackles in season opener at Washington (Sept. 3) ... suffered calf injury midway through home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... inactive for next two games ... returned to action in impressive form with 15 tackles vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1) ... provided nine and one-half tackles and forced Giant running back Rodney Hampton to fumble on the Arizona six-yard line to preserve a 21–21 tie and send the Giants' eventual 27–21 victory into overtime at the Meadowlands (Oct. 8) ... helped limit Washington to 42 yards rushing with six stops in 24–20 win over Redskins (Oct. 15) ... added six and one-half tackles in 20–14 overtime victory against Seattle (Oct. 29) ... on field for all 80 plays vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12), making seven tackles and recovering a fumble to set up a field goal ... anchored impressive defensive effort vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) with nine tackles and a pair of sacks ... the second separated Falcon quarterback Jeff George from the ball ... Arizona defensive end Clyde Simmons made the recovery to set up a field goal and a 30–27 Cardinal lead near the start of the fourth quarter in the Cards' 40–37 overtime win ... three consecutive double-digit tackle efforts—11.5 vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 30), 18 (12 solos) at San Diego (Dec. 9), and 12 more stops to help shut down the Eagles' third-ranked rushing attack to just three first downs and 76 yards at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) ... ended season with six solo stops vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ✔1994: Surged among the NFL's elite inside linebackers with 143 tackles, his top single-season total, as Card defense finished third in the NFL and led the league in fewest first downs allowed (245) and opponent third-down conversion efficiency (27.8 percent) ... overall, the defense closed the season with its highest ranking in 25 years (third) and the first Cardinal defense to finish a season ranked in the NFL's top 10 with perches of third overall and fourth against the run and pass ... posted eight or more tackles 10 times with six double-digit efforts ... also exhibited versatility with five passes defensed ... credited with six tackles and a sack to help limit the Vikings to 18 yards on 13 rushing attempts in 17–7 victory (Oct. 2) ... clicked for double-digit tackle efforts in five consecutive contests with 15 at Dallas (Oct. 9), 13 in 19–16 overtime win at Washington (Oct. 16), 11 with a blocked field goal in return match against the Cowboys (Oct. 23), and 10 in successive games to aid a 20–17 overtime triumph over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) and at Philadelphia (Nov. 6) ... registered nine tackles in 10–9 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13) ... pummeled Chicago for season-high 20 hits, including 14 solo stops, against the Bears (Nov. 27) ... credited with nine tackles and shared a sack with Eric Swann to hold Washington to a second-quarter field goal in 17–15 victory (Dec. 11). ✔1993: Though he missed the season's first three games due to the NFL's five-day letter rule after signing late, drew rave reviews with 92 tackles ... registered six or more tackles on eight occasions ... also credited with 1 sack, 2 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 pass defensed ... posted two solo stops as reserve in first action of season at Detroit (Sept. 26) ... started at inside linebacker vs. New England (Oct. 10) and collected 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops ... joined fellow inside linebacker Tyronne Stowe to combine for 24 tackles ... five tackles in 36–6 victory over Washington (Oct. 17) ... 11 tackles with a sack and pass defensed at San Francisco (Oct. 24) ... credited with eight stops in 16–3 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 7) and at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... seven stops in outings at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) and in 38–10 triumph over L.A. Rams (Dec. 5) ... registered five solo tackles, one assist, and forced a third-quarter fumble that set up the Cards' final score in 17–6 win over the playoff-bound N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) ... posted four tackles and recovered a fumble deep in Falcon territory that led to the Cards' second score of the game and a 14–3 lead in the season finale, a 27–10 victory at Atlanta (Jan. 2). ✔1992: Notched second consecutive season over the 100-tackle plateau with 103 stops (68 solos) ... added 3 quarterback "hurries," 1 fumble recovery, and 2 forced fumbles ... key player in "big nickel" defensive scheme as he and fellow inside linebacker Tyronne Stowe combined for 80 tackles over the final six weeks of the season when the defense limited foes to 67.5 yards rushing per game during that span ... led club with nine tackles in season opener at Tampa Bay (Sept. 6) ... paced fine defensive effort with eight tackles as Cards held New Orleans to 50 yards rushing (Oct. 18) ... credited with four tackles in 24–14 win over San Francisco (Nov. 1) and perhaps strangest play of season ... teammate Stowe forced 49ers tight end Brent Jones to fumble following a pass reception ... Hill recovered and during the return 49er wide receiver Mike Sherrard swiped the ball from Hill and raced 39 yards for a San Francisco touchdown ... posted five tackles and forced a fumble that resulted in a Cardinal score and a 13–7 third-quarter lead in 20–14 win at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8) ... logged 13 tackles (nine solos) vs. Dallas (Nov. 22) as Cards limited Cowboys' Emmitt Smith to 15 yards on nine rushing attempts in the first half ... despite painful groin pull that prevented him from practicing during the week, registered four solo stops in 19–0 shutout of the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) ... posted eight tackles in season finale vs. Tampa Bay as Card defense held Buc 1,000-yard rusher Reggie Cobb to 11 yards on 11 attempts. ✔1991: Sailed to career-best 107 tackles to lead Cardinal defenders ... returned fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opening win at the L.A. Rams (Sept. 1), the second-longest fumble return in franchise history ... Cards' Vice President Larry Wilson holds the record (88-yard return at Green Bay on Dec. 21, 1969) ... 46 assists also led the team ...

Plan B Free Agent (Dallas), 1989

✔Pro Career: Signed by Cardinals as Plan B free agent on April 1, 1989 ... persevering, dedicated individual who was an 11th-round longshot draft pick by Dallas in 1986 ... played solidly after stepping into a starting role in the fourth game of the 1990 season when Cards switched to a "three-four" defensive alignment ... superior special-teams performer with fine mobility and football instincts ... 143 professional appearances ... missed just three games in the past eight seasons. ✔1995: Concluded fourth consecutive season appearing in all 16 games ... 15 solo tackles and 16 assists ... also contributed seven stops on special teams ... started two games at middle linebacker and two at right linebacker ... most action from scrimmage since 1991 vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) when he replaced the injured Eric Hill in the first quarter ... on field for 48 plays ... with Hill still injured, Jax generated five tackles at Detroit (Sept. 20) in his first starting role since 1991, highlighted by a fourth-and-one stoning of Barry Sanders at the goal line in the third quarter of the 20–17 victory ... posted six tackles as a starter at Dallas (Sept. 24) ... after reserve action in the next nine outings, replaced an injured Jamir Miller at San Diego (Dec. 9), making four tackles ... contributed six stops as a starter in each of the final two games at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) and vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ✔1994: Appeared in every game for the third consecutive year, the seventh time in nine seasons he has not missed a contest ... statistical total of three tackles from scrimmage and 12 stops on coverage units belie his value to the club ... saw action at middle linebacker, on special teams, and as a blocking back ... posted two tackles on kick-cover units vs. the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) ... extended playing time at linebacker in fourth quarter at Cleveland (Sept. 18) ... paved the way for a Ronald Moore touchdown in the second quarter of Cards' 20–17 overtime win against Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) as a blocking back ... with Arizona facing a 9–3 deficit at the N.Y. Giants, (Nov. 13), replaced Hill (leg injury) for just one snap and stopped Giant running back Rodney Hampton short of a first down on a third-and-one play near midfield, forcing a punt as Cards scored later in fourth quarter for dramatic 10–9 victory. ✔1993: Saw action in all 16 games, mainly on special teams ... also handled duties as a blocking back in short yardage and goal-line situations ... 12 tackles and 42 "blocks" on kick coverage units, the latter ranking second on the club ... began to line up in backfield for blocking duties at mid-season ... saw first action as blocking back at San Francisco (Oct. 24), then entered the game twice on fourth-down, short-yardage situations vs. New Orleans (Oct. 31) ... Cards converted first downs both times ... overall, came into the game about two dozen times for offensive blocking. ✔1992: Played primarily on special teams, posting five tackles and 37 "blocks" ... bulked from 230 to 250 pounds during spring and summer to handle inside linebacker play, then had to drop the weight midway throughout the season after outside linebackers Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn suffered injuries ... saw extended action in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27) and posted two solo tackles and two assists. ✔1991: Played in 12 games, starting first nine contests and registering 52 tackles before finishing the season on the injured reserve list with a pinched nerve in the neck ... compiled 10 tackles at Philadelphia (Sept. 8) and hit Eagles' Keith Byars as he released the ball on an option pass that teammate Aeneas Williams intercepted to set up score as Cards won 26–10 ... led club with six tackles vs. Dallas (Sept. 22) ... registered seven tackles at Minnesota (Oct. 13) ... eight stops in return match with Vikings (Oct. 27), his final starting role of season, as the pinched nerve began to flare ... placed on injured reserve list Nov. 21 for remainder of the season. ✔1990: Cruised to career-best 70 tackles and three quarterback sacks ... eclipsed previous 51-game career total of 14 tackles from scrimmage in first four games as a starter ... registered just four tackles in first four games before starting at inside linebacker in revamped "three-four" defensive scheme ... made immediate impact in initial game as starter with first professional interception in 20–3 win over former Dallas teammates (Oct. 14) ... authored fine three-game stretch with six tackles and a sack vs. Chicago (Oct. 28), season-best 10 solo stops, 11 overall at Miami (Nov. 4), and eight tackles and two quarterback hurries at Buffalo (Nov. 11) ... registered four tackles and a sack in back-to-back games vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) and in 34–14 triumph over New England (Nov. 25) ... collected six stops in wins vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 2) and Atlanta (Dec. 9) despite painful foot as the result of bites from freak dog melee ... his left foot was mauled attempting to stop a fight between two dogs before the Dec. 2 Colts' game ... managed to play despite unsutured wounds due to infection precautions that required so much wrap and padding he was forced to borrow the size 13EEE left shoe of offensive tackle Tootie Robbins ... produced seven tackles and second theft of season in return match at Dallas (Dec. 16) ... also provided seven special-teams tackles and 20 "blocks" on return units, good for fifth best on club. ✔1989: Finished as club leader with 30 special-teams tackles, nearly doubling the total of his nearest teammate (Michael Zordich, 18) ... totaled seven tackles in plays from scrimmage ... three tackles (kickoff return, punt return, scrimmage) vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) ... impressed former Cowboy teammates with a pair of coverage tackles vs. Dallas (Nov. 12), earning his second game ball of the season ... also awarded a game ball at Seattle (Sept. 17) ... logged four stops overall at the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24) ... during the Cardinals' injury-riddled campaign, even Bible study proved hazardous when Jax suffered whiplash in an auto accident returning from class on Oct. 12, three days before playing against Philadelphia. ✔1988: Named special teams player-of-the-year by Cowboys' coaching staff ... opened season as starter at right linebacker ... season-best six tackles in season opener vs. Pittsburgh (Sept. 4), his first NFL start ... started at left outside linebacker vs. Cincinnati (Nov. 20) and Houston (Nov. 24) ... played on all coverage and return units ... led special teams with 24 tackles, earning game ball in 24–17 win over Washington (Dec. 11). ✔1987: Played three games with casted broken wrist, thinking it was just a sprain before team doctors mandated surgery ... spent last nine games on injured reserve ... played in just three contests, primarily on special teams. ✔1986: Originally drafted in the 11th round (296th) by Dallas ... released on final roster cutdown ... re-signed for season opener ... solid efforts on special teams ... limited time as reserve outside linebacker

... played in all 16 games ... first NFL game ball vs. Cardinals (Sept. 29). ✔College/ Personal: Overcame several injuries during collegiate career at Florida State, battling back to lead Seminoles with six quarterback sacks as a senior in 1985 ... kidney and spleen injuries as Florida State junior nearly ended his football career ... Houston native led Jesuit High School squad to 4-A state title three of his four years ... active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Christian Athletes Ministries ... one of the most community-minded Cardinals ... nominated for the NFL's 1995 Byron "Whizzer" White Award ... the Cardinals' nominee for the 1990 "Travelers/NFL Man-of-the-Year Award" for his community interest and efforts ... joined defensive lineman Michael Bankston and punter Jeff Feagles as one of three Cardinal nominees for the 1995 "True Value/NFL Man-of-the-Year Award" ... co-chairman of the Cardinals' 1995 "Sack 'Em" fund-raising program benefitting the St. Joseph's Hospital Mercy Care Center in Phoenix that provides medical services to Arizona's indigent ... polished public speaker ... born Sept. 16, 1963 ... holds 1986 bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Florida State ... his wife Elizabeth, who holds a 1991 bachelor's degree in communications from Oklahoma, completed her master's degree in educational counseling from Northern Arizona University in 1995 ... the couple resides in Scottsdale Arizona with son Griffin (Nov. 22, 1994).

Rams (Roger Brown, Deacon Jones, and Merlin Olsen), the 1974 Pittsburgh Steelers (Joe Greene, L.C. Greenwood, and Dwight White), the 1975 L.A. Rams (Olsen, Fred Dryer, and Jack Youngblood), and the 1981 San Diego Chargers (Fred Dean, Louie Kelcher, and Gary Johnson) ... the 1969 Minnesota Vikings (Alan Page, Carl Eller, Jim Marshall, and Gary Larsen) were the only team to send four ... consistent play helped the Eagles' defense achieve a rare triple as the unit became the first in the NFL since the 1975 Vikings to rank first against the run, pass, and overall in yards allowed ... cruised to a career day and NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors at Dallas (Sept. 15) with a club-record four and one-half of the team's all-time high 11 sacks in 24–0 shellacking of the Cowboys ... registered four other multiple-sack games as Eagles prevailed in each instance (Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, and both outings against the N.Y. Giants) ... posted career-high 18 tackles vs. New Orleans (Oct. 13) ... knocked Cincinnati quarterback Boomer Esiason out of the game on a sack in 17–10 win vs. Bengals (Nov. 17) ... scored the fourth touchdown of his career when he fell on a fumble by Phoenix quarterback Stan Gelbaugh in a 34–14 triumph at Phoenix (Nov. 24). ✔1990: Slow start but finished season in top form to collect 69 solo tackles, 40 assists, 50 hurries, 1 forced fumble, 3 fumble recoveries, and 8 sacks, the latter in the final 10 games of the season ... recovered a Viking fumble at the six-yard line to set up the game-winning score in 32–24 Monday night victory vs. Minnesota (Oct. 15) ... came through again before a national television audience when he returned a Redskin fumble by quarterback Jeff Rutledge 18 yards for a touchdown in 28–14 Monday night victory over Washington (Nov. 12) ... sidelined Falcons' quarterback Chris Miller with a crunching sack on Atlanta's final drive to preserve a 24–23 victory at Atlanta (Nov. 18) ... forced Cowboy passer Troy Aikman out of the game in the first quarter of 17–3 win over Dallas (Dec. 23). ✔1989: Led Eagles with 15.5 sacks and 65 hurries ... 135 tackles (85 solos) ranked fourth on the club and led all defensive linemen in a season that fell just short of Pro Bowl mention ... registered at least one sack in 11 of 16 contests ... posted three and one-half sacks in 28–24 victory at Denver (Oct. 29) ... forced Minnesota's Herschel Walker to fumble and set up the game-winning drive in 10–9 win over the Vikings (Nov. 19) ... scored a touchdown in Giants Stadium for the second consecutive year when he intercepted a Phil Simms pass and raced 60 yards to the end zone in a 24–17 victory over the Giants (Dec. 3) that vaulted the Eagles into first place in the division ... posted season-high 12 tackles in Monday night contest at New Orleans (Dec. 18). ✔1988: Flashed the big-play ability that would characterize his future performance in first full 16-game season as a starter ... posted 64 tackles, 25 assists, 8 sacks, 1 forced fumble, 3 fumble recoveries, 1 blocked field goal, 1 blocked extra point, and 1 safety ... earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week notice with two sacks of Houston quarterback Cody Carlson—one causing a fumble, another for a safety—in 32–23 win over the Oilers (Oct. 2) ... blocked an extra-point attempt at Cleveland (Oct. 16) and recovered fumbles at Minnesota (Sept. 25), vs. the L.A. Rams (Nov. 6), and at Phoenix (Dec. 10) ... preserved a 27–26 victory at Pittsburgh (Nov. 13) when he blocked a 57-yard field-goal attempt by Gary Anderson on the game's final play ... the following week at Giants Stadium (Nov. 20) he had a hand in one of the most improbable plays in Philadelphia history ... with the score tied 17–17 in overtime, Eagle kicker Luis Zendejas attempted a potential game-winning 30-yard field goal which Giant linebacker Lawrence Taylor blocked ... Simmons scooped the bouncing ball behind the line of scrimmage and raced 15 yards to the end zone for a touchdown and a 23–17 Eagle victory 10 years and a day after Philadelphia defeated the Giants in the Miracle of the Meadowlands—Herman Edwards' touchdown return of a Larry Csonka fumble in 1978 ... also posted a season-high 10 tackles in the victory ... rattled the Cardinals for two and one-half sacks and tipped a 44-yard field-goal attempt in 31–21 triumph over Phoenix (Nov. 27). ✔1987: Given nod to start at right defensive end during spring mini-camp ... finished 12-game season with 59 tackles, 16 assists, 6 sacks, and 4 blocked kicks (two field goals, two extra points) ... rattled New Orleans for seven tackles and one and one-half sacks, including a hit that separated Saints' quarterback Bobby Hebert from the ball, a fumble teammate Joyner returned 18 yards for a score in 27–17 win over New Orleans (Sept. 20) ... authored outstanding three-game stretch with weekly heroics in Eagle victories each outing ... earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week with 6 tackles, 2 sacks, and 1 fumble recovery to set up a field goal, and blocked a field-goal attempt to set up a touchdown in 37–20 victory over Dallas (Oct. 25) ... the next week in St. Louis (Nov. 1), collected seven tackles and credited with blocking a field goal and an extra-point attempt in 28–23 win over the Cardinals ... finished stretch of big plays with nine tackles and another blocked extra point in a 31–27 win over Washington (Nov. 8) ... posted season-best 10 tackles vs. St. Louis (Nov. 22) and at the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6). ✔1986: Selected in ninth round of NFL Draft (234th overall) ... played primarily on special teams and as a reserve lineman as a rookie ... posted three solo tackles and two sacks ... registered sacks in successive games—33–27 overtime victory at L.A. Raiders (Nov. 30) and 10–10 tie versus St. Louis (Dec. 7) ... also blocked an Eric Schubert field-goal attempt with nine seconds remaining vs. Cardinals to preserve a tie. ✔College/Personal: First team Division I-A all-America selection at Western Carolina ... led team with 97 tackles and eight sacks as a senior ... tied school career record with 48 tackles for loss and set single-season mark of 23 in 1985 ... N.Y. Giant passer Dave Brown with four hurries and a sack, and blocked a 47-yard Brad Daluiso field-goal try in the second quarter ... totaled six tackles, recovered one fumble, and forced another vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ✔1994: In his first uninterrupted season as a starter, served notice of impending stardom with 87 tackles, a team-best 18 quarterback hurries and 19 tackles for loss, and shared the team lead with seven quarterback sacks ... also registered his third safety to tie 13 other all-time NFL players to record three two-point plays ... just one safety behind the league record of four held jointly by Ted Hendricks (Baltimore, Green Bay, Oakland/L.A. Raiders) and Doug English (Detroit) ... closed the season like a freight train with 15 hurries and 50 tackles in the final 10 games ... four tackles, including two for loss, in season-opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 4) ... leveled Giant runner Dave Meggett with a devastating hit on the first play of the fourth quarter for a six-yard loss, one of nine tackles overall and two stops for losses against New York (Sept. 11) ... joined teammates Michael Bankston and Clyde Simmons for all 58 defensive snaps at Cleveland (Sept. 18) with 6 tackles, 2 hurries, and 1 forced fumble ... registered three solo tackles, including two stops for loss, as Arizona held the Vikings to only 18 rushing yards (fewest by a Card opponent since 1983) in 17–7 victory over Minnesota (Oct. 2) ... riddled Washington for seven tackles in 19–16 overtime victory in R.F.K. Stadium (Oct. 16) ... posted five stops, one hurry, and batted down quarterback Troy Aikman's first pass of the game in 28–21 loss to Dallas (Oct. 23) ... three stops and harassed Steeler quarterback Neil O'Donnell with three hurries in 20–17 overtime win against Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... scooped a Charlie Garner fumble and had clear sailing for a 56-yard touchdown return, but was tripped by Randall Cunningham after rumbling 10 yards at Philadelphia (Nov. 6) ... closed impressive three-game stretch with four more quarterback hurries to complement eight tackles at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13) ... with the Giants driving inside Arizona territory at the 30-yard line, pressured quarterback Kent Graham into an intentional grounding penalty as teammate Seth Joyner intercepted on the ensuing play to squelch a scoring drive in thrilling 10–9 victory ... dominated with three tackles at Houston (Dec. 4) while adding two tackles for loss and a safety when he tackled quarterback Billy Joe Tolliver in the end zone in the waning minutes of the game ... nearly registered the fourth safety of his career in 28–7 win over Cincinnati (Dec. 18) as Bengal quarterback Jeff Blake barely eluded his grasp in the end zone ... closed season with three tackles, two hurries, and his first career pass interception, a diving catch of a pass Simmons batted into the air at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ✔1993: Started the first nine games of the season ... emerged as one of the premier defensive forces in the NFC before suffering a knee injury vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... a subsequent arthroscopic procedure (Nov. 10) repaired the lateral meniscus (cartilage) in his right knee ... posted season totals of 47 tackles (35 solo), 3.5 sacks, 7 hurries, 4 passes defensed, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... prior to the injury, his total of 47 tackles ranked fifth on team ... nearest defensive-line mate had less than one-half his total of 35 solo stops (Michael Bankston, 15) ... honored as NFC defensive player-of-the-week for effort vs. Washington (Oct. 17) when he rattled the Redskins for 12 tackles (eight solos), caused a fumble he recovered, two quarterback sacks, downed Redskin running back Reggie Brooks in the end zone for a safety, and notched two hurries in a 36–6 Cardinal victory ... credited with three solo tackles and chased down Redskin quarterback Mark Rypien from behind, forcing the quarterback out of the game with a knee injury, in 17–10 victory at Washington (Sept. 12), the first Cardinal win in RFK Stadium since 1978 ... a one-man wrecking crew two weeks later at Detroit (Sept. 26) with 13 tackles (9 solos), 1.5 sacks, 1 deflected pass, 2 hurries, and 1 blocked field-goal attempt while playing all 55 defensive snaps ... on field for 72 of 80 plays vs. New England (Oct. 10) and contributed six solo stops, batted down a pass, recorded a tackle for loss, and posted a hurry ... provided a pair of assisted tackles and turned Eagle quarterback Ken O'Brien into teammate Ken Harvey for a Cardinal sack vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 17) before leaving game with the knee injury. ✔1992: Cut eye teeth with 70 tackles, ranking fourth on the club, the highest finish by a Cardinal defensive lineman in 14 seasons (tackle Bob Pollard, second in 1978, 103 tackles) ... finished the season as an every-down lineman, playing 210 of 225 snaps over the last four games, including 160 of 163 in games 13–15 ... helped lead a defensive revival over the last 11 games when Card opponents failed to rush for over 100 yards eight times, including a defensive surge in the final six outings when the Phoenix defense yielded only 67.5 yards rushing per game ... impressive in 11 starting roles in 16 games, posting 51 solo tackles, 19 assists, 2 sacks, 9 hurries, 6 deflected passes, and 4 forced fumbles ... also blocked a field-goal attempt at Dallas (Sept. 20) ... nine hurries ranked second on club to Ken Harvey (15) ... six passes defensed ranked in fourth-place tie behind four defensive backs ... four forced fumbles led the squad ... notched three solo tackles, a sack, and a forced fumble that Phoenix recovered vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 13) ... credited with four tackles and blocked a field-goal attempt the next week at Dallas (Sept. 20), a team first dating back four seasons (Bob Clasby vs. Green Bay, Dec. 18, 1988) ... in first start of season, registered six tackles, including two for loss vs. New Orleans (Oct. 18) ... followed with seven tackles and knocked down two passes at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) ... played 47 of 49 plays in 24–14 victory over San Francisco (Nov. 1), contributing three tackles and his fourth pass defensed in the past three games ... generated impressive back-to-back efforts with seven tackles, a sack, and a forced fumble at Atlanta (Nov. 15) ... nine tackles to help limit Dallas' Emmitt Smith to nine rushing attempts for just 15 first-half yards vs. the Cowboys (Nov. 22) ... played all 53 downs in head-turning performance vs. San Diego (Dec. 6) with 10 tackles, 1 stop for loss, and 1 pass deflection ... came off the field for just two of 46 plays in 19–0 shutout of N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12), adding four solo tackles, one assist, another pass defensed, and the Cardinals' first safety since 1989 when he tackled Giants' quarterback Dave Brown in the end zone ... played 63 of 64 downs at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) and collected seven tackles, forced a fumble, swatted down a pass, and registered five hurries. ✔1991: NFL career began inauspiciously when he suffered injury to left knee during Cards' mini-camp May 3 ... underwent arthroscopic surgery May 7 to remove a piece of torn meniscus cartilage ... after limited activity, had fluid drained from his knee just after the start of training camp (July 18) ... underwent second arthroscopic examination July 30 that revealed minor inflammation and required only a debris clean-up of the knee ... declared part of 47-man roster, then placed on injured reserve list Aug. 27 ... in first season, credited with 19 solo tackles, 3 assists, 4 quarterback sacks, and 5 hurries ... activated Sept. 27 ... first professional action in 24-10 win over New England (Sept. 29), lining up for 14 plays as interior lineman in nickel package ... recorded first two tackles at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... started first NFL game at Minnesota (Oct. 13) and responded with three solo tackles and a quarterback hurry in 43 plays, the most of any Phoenix defensive lineman that afternoon ... collected four tackles in 16-10 win over Atlanta (Oct. 20) ... registered first quarterback sack of career by leaping over 6-7, 317-pound Cowboy lineman Kevin Gogan to haul down Aikman at Dallas (Nov. 3) ... bullrushed to a pair of sacks in starting role at San Francisco (Nov. 17) ... season-high seven stops vs. Washington (Dec. 8) ... collected three solo tackles and his fourth sack of season in Denver (Dec. 15). ✔Personal: Started at left defensive end for 8–3 Bay State (Mass.)

Cornerback 35

5–10 • 190 • Sixth Year • Southern
Third Round, 1992

✔Pro Career: One of the NFL's premier cornerbacks ... Pro Bowl starter the past two seasons ... NFL co-leader in interceptions in 1994 ... three-time Cardinal interceptions leader (1991, '94–95), including the past two campaigns ... blends talent with impeccable work ethic, physical conditioning, and mental toughness ... a Cardinal starter since rookie arrival in 1991, performing like a seasoned veteran immediately ... after outstanding rookie season, recovered from rough start in 1992 to re-establish himself as one of the top coverage corners in the NFC ... continued that level of play the past three seasons ... has led or tied for the NFC interception lead among cornerbacks twice (1991–6, 1994–9) in five pro seasons ... scored as many touchdowns on returns (two interceptions, one blocked field goal) as the Cardinal offense did rushing—three—in 1995 ... although known for his interceptions, also has recovered at least one fumble in each of his five NFL seasons. ✔1995: Garnered second consecutive Pro Bowl berth ... consensus all-pro notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, the Pro Football Writers Association, The Sporting News, and USA Today ... second team choice by Football Digest ... also named all-NFC by Football News and United Press International ... 46.5 solo tackles, 11 assists, 6 interceptions, 12 deflected passes, and 2 recovered fumbles ... scored three touchdowns—interception returns of 28 and 48 yards, and a blocked field-goal return of 72 yards ... six interceptions tied him with nine other players for fifth in the NFL ... five solo stops in the season opener at Washington (Sept. 3) ... four tackles the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... sustained a mild knee sprain at Dallas (Sept. 24) and left the game in the second quarter ... 4 tackles, 3 deflected passes, and 1 interception return, a 28-yarder off quarterback Gus Frerotte for a touchdown to give the Cards a 10–7 lead in the second quarter of their 24–20 victory over Washington (Oct. 15) ... heroic effort in 20–14 overtime win vs. Seattle (Oct. 29) with a first-quarter interception, fourth-quarter fumble recovery, and two of the season's top hustle plays ... ran down Seahawk running back Lamar Smith from behind after a 68-yard run ... teamed with fellow defensive back Brent Alexander to strip Seattle's Chris Warren of the ball inside the Arizona 10-yard line after a 52-yard fourth-quarter run, preventing what could have been the game-winning points ... Williams recovered Warren's fumble in the Cardinals' end zone ... four tackles and three deflected passes vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... scooped a field-goal attempt blocked by teammate Seth Joyner and raced 72 yards for six points on the final play of the first half at

(Nov. 19) ... authored key play vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) when he stripped Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski of the ball on a fumbled snap in overtime to set the table for a 28-yard game-winning field goal on the next play in Arizona's 40–37 triumph ... four takeaways at San Diego (Dec. 9)—two second-quarter fumble recoveries and interceptions in the third and fourth periods ... added six tackles against the Chargers ... fifth interception of the season at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) but a mild knee sprain limited him to reserve duty in the second half ... returned an interception of a Troy Aikman pass 48 yards for his third touchdown of the season and posted eight tackles in Christmas night season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ✔1994: Earned first Pro Bowl honor when he tied Cleveland safety Eric Turner for the NFL lead with nine interceptions ... nearest competitor among cornerbacks was the trio of San Francisco's Merton Hanks, L.A. Raiders' Terry McDaniel, and New England's Maurice Hurst, all with seven interceptions ... the nine pickoffs matched the Cardinals' entire team total of 1993 ... collected first team all-pro honors from Sports Illustrated and USA Today ... second team from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football Digest ... all-NFC acclaim by Football News and United Press International ... flourished in new Head Coach Buddy Ryan's pressure-minded defensive scheme that isolated the cornerbacks ... responded to the challenge with the most interceptions (nine) by a Cardinal since safety Ken Stone in 1978 and the most by a Cardinal cornerback since Pat Fischer collected 10 in 1964 ... four interceptions during the months of October and November ... 46 tackles, 1 recovered fumble, and 16 deflected passes ... blocked a fourth-quarter punt in the home opener vs. the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) to set up the Cards' final score and close the Giants' lead to 20–17 ... squelched Cleveland's opening drive with his first interception at the Cards' 22-yard line in loss to Browns (Sept. 18) ... added six tackles ... contributed four tackles, batted away one pass, and halted a Minnesota scoring drive at the Cardinal 20-yard line with a 21-yard return of his second interception of the season in 17–7 victory (Oct. 2) ... along with bookend cornerback James Williams, collected two interceptions in 19–16 overtime win at Washington (Oct. 16) to highlight effort that earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors ... first halted a Redskin scoring drive at the 16-yard line, then returned his second interception 43 yards to the 22-yard line to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown and bring the Cards within five points ... also recovered a blocked field goal in overtime ... frequently matched against talented Dallas wide receiver Michael Irvin, posting two tackles, two pass deflections, including an impressive "jump ball" against the taller Irvin in 28–21 loss (Oct. 23) ... set up Cards' opening touchdown with first-quarter interception in 20–17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... though he posted just two tackles, swatted away two passes as Giants completed just nine of 26 attempts in 10–9 Arizona victory in the Meadowlands (Nov. 13), the Cards' first victory at Giants Stadium since 1983 ... after Eagle receiver Fred Barnett burned the Cardinals for 11 receptions, 173 yards, and two touchdowns in the season's first meeting, Williams covered Barnett one-on-one in the rematch in Arizona, rising to the challenge to harness Barnett to four catches for 24 yards in Cards' 12–6 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... also pulled down an interception at the goal line to halt an Eagle drive and recovered a Herschel Walker fumble in Cardinal territory with nine minutes left in the game to preserve a 9–3 lead ... snuffed out a Chicago drive with his seventh interception of the season at the 26-yard line vs. Bears (Nov. 27) ... posted his eighth theft of the season and knocked away two passes in 30–12 victory at Houston (Dec. 4) ... ended a Redskin scoring threat with a goal-line interception near the end of the first half to preserve a 7–6 lead in 17–15 win over Washington (Dec. 11) ... swatted away four passes in 28–7 win over Cincinnati (Dec. 18) ... closed season with five tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ✔1993: Complemented a steady, reliable performance at left cornerback with big-play ability to generate 42 tackles, 2 interceptions, 15 passes defensed, 2 hurries, and 2 fumble recoveries ... authored memorable effort against New Orleans, his hometown team, with his first two professional touchdowns on a 20-yard fumble return for a score in the first quarter, then zig-zagged 46 yards into the end zone with a second-quarter interception off Saints' quarterback Bobby Hebert ... Williams' 12 points outscored seven NFL teams that day ... also added four tackles and knocked away a pass ... during the course of the season, his unheralded effectiveness was a key to a Cards' defense which allowed just 14 touchdown passes, tied for fourth best in the league ... called upon for just 12 tackles and three passes defensed over first six contests ... set up Cards' only touchdown with 41-yard interception return in first quarter of 16–3 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... posted four solo stops and swatted away two passes at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... impressive play came when Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith broke three tackles to turn a seven-yard gain into a footrace as Williams caught the Dallas Pro Bowler from behind to stop an 86-yard pass play at the two-yard line, running through field judge Don Orr near midfield to make the play ... underscored his "never-say-quit attitude" again the following week at the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 21) by chasing down Giants' running back Rodney Hampton after a 62-yard gain, forcing him out of bounds at the 11-yard line ... posted two solo stops, knocked away a pass, and recovered a fumble to stop a Lion scoring drive at the Cards' 25-yard line vs. Detroit (Dec. 12) ... pair of tackles, a pass defensed, and two hurries on blitzes from his corner spot in 17–6 victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26). ✔1992: Rebounded admirably from a trying start during his sophomore season to finish impressively ... started all 16 games at right cornerback, posting 48 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defensed, 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... after just 10 tackles (none in two contests) and only three passes defensed in the first five outings, regrouped to collect 38 stops, 3 interceptions, and 10 pass deflections in the last 11 games as a key element in the Cardinals' defensive resurgence ... broke out of slump with his first interception and three passes defensed at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) as the Eagles managed just nine pass completions ... appeared to be headed for the end zone on the interception but was stopped short when he ran into a roadblock of an Eagle player and a game official near the goal line ... two touchdowns nullified by officials' rulings ... scooped the fumble and raced 61 yards for an apparent game-winning score in fourth quarter at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), but touchdown was nullified when teammate Eric Swann was flagged for an illegal block during Williams' return ... Cards scored the go-ahead touchdown on the ensuing possession in 20–14 victory ... two weeks later vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), made diving interception and raced 78 yards for another potential touchdown and 14–3 Phoenix lead, but he was ruled down by contact ... also posted seven tackles vs. Cowboys ... played solid game in 19–0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) with three solo tackles and two passes defensed as Giants completed just nine of 25 pass attempts ... registered five solo stops and fourth-quarter interception in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ✔1991: Posted one of the most memorable performances by an NFL rookie cornerback in recent seasons ... named NFC defensive rookie-of-the-year by the NFL Players' Association ... consensus all-rookie selection at cornerback ... six interceptions gave him a share of the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve that notoriety since the Cowboys' Everson Walls

(11) in 1981 ... prior to that, the last rookie to turn the trick was Detroit Hall of Famer Lem Barney (10) in 1967 ... additionally, posted 48 tackles, 17 passes defensed, and 2 forced fumbles ... lined up for 852 of 967 defensive snaps to rank second in playing time to free safety Michael Zordich (861) among Phoenix defensive backs ... in first NFL start, collected three tackles, an interception, and batted away four passes in Cards' 24–14 victory at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... grabbed second interception the following week against the Eagles (Sept. 8), and made fumble recovery in end zone ... both efforts thwarted Philadelphia scoring drives in 26–10 victory at Veterans Stadium ... did not start at Washington (Sept. 15) due to ankle sprain but still saw duty as reserve ... responded with seven tackles and a pass defensed at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... played all 55 defensive snaps and collected three tackles and batted away a pair of passes against Atlanta's "Red Gun" offense in 16–10 Phoenix victory (Oct. 20) ... added third theft of season at Dallas (Nov. 3) along with four tackles ... tallied fourth interception of season and swatted away two other passes vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... picked off John Elway twice at Denver (Dec. 15), both times setting up Cardinal scores ... finished impressive rookie season with five tackles vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) in season finale. ✔College/Personal: Former walk-on at Southern in 1988 who shared national lead in interceptions with 11 as a senior in 1990 ... ranked second with seven as a junior ... collected 218 tackles, 20 interceptions, and 25 pass deflections in three collegiate seasons ... as football walk-on during his sophomore year, he earned a starting role by the fifth game of the season ... all-district most valuable player at Fortier High School in his native New Orleans, La. ... in talent-rich New Orleans, he played against or with five future NFL defensive backs—Maurice Hurst (New England), Kevin Lewis (San Francisco), Garry Lewis (L.A. Raiders), Michael Lindsey (L.A. Rams), and Ashley Ambrose (Indianapolis) ... Ambrose, Hurst, K. Lewis, and Williams attended Alcee Fortier High School together ... father Lawrence George Williams a laboratory supervisor for Union Carbide, gave Williams his unusual first name to avoid saddling him, along with his brother, Achilles, with common monikers similar to his own ... declined academic scholarship to Dartmouth to attend Southern like his father and brother ... enrolled at Southern to pursue interest in student government, not football ... acted as freshman senator and sophomore class vice president ... earned bachelor's degree in accounting from Southern in four years with a 3.2 grade-point average ... enrolled in graduate school when drafted by Phoenix ... wife Tracy holds a master's degree of business administration in agricultural economics from the University of Illinois ... the couple makes its permanent home in its native New Orleans ... to underscore his conditioning dedication, Williams was the only Cardinal to post a sub-2:00 time when Ryan opened his first Arizona training camp with a mandatory 880-yard run, posting an impressive 1:58 time on July 6, 1994 ... born January 29, 1968.

Joe Wolf

Offensive Lineman 68

6–6 • 296 • Eighth Year • Boston College
First Round-b (17th), 1989

✔Pro Career: Hard luck NFL career due to injuries ... has offered valuable versatility across the Cards' offensive line ... injuries to teammates prompted him to play three different positions on the offensive line as a rookie in 1989 ... opened the 1991 season at left guard, but played in just eight games due to torn pectoral muscle ... suffered the same injury to the other side of his chest in 1992, limiting him to three games and two starting roles ... suffered a broken bone in his left hand during training camp in 1993 ... broken ankle after six appearances cut short his 1995 season. ✔1995: Saw action in first six games, primarily on special teams ... relieved Anthony Redmon at right guard vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1) ... came off the bench to replace injured left tackle Ernest Dye at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8) ... started at right tackle week seven vs. Washington (Oct. 15) to become the second of five different starters at the position ... had screw inserted in his left ankle on Oct. 16 after he was placed on the injured reserve list for the duration of the season. ✔1994: Started final six games at right tackle after playing in just two of the first 10 contests ... Arizona forged a 4–2 record during that span ... only early-season action came at Cleveland (Sept. 18) when he played at left guard in the second half ... in his first start of the season at tackle. Cards gained 158 yards on the ground in 12–6 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... moved from right side to left tackle late in that game in place of injured starter Luis Sharpe ... finished season in similar fashion to 1993 campaign when he opened at left guard for final five contests. ✔1993: Aspirations for injury-free, productive season suffered setback with the training camp hand injury ... inactive for first three games of season ... started final five outings at left guard in place of Mark May (back injury) when Cards won four of last five contests ... opened at left guard in 38–10 win over L.A. Rams (Dec. 5), marking his first starting role in nearly one year (Dec. 12, 1992 vs. N.Y. Giants). ✔1992: Spent first 12 weeks of the season on injured reserve list with pectoral muscle tear on left side ... surgery to correct problem ... activated Dec. 5 ... started immediately at right tackle vs. San Diego (Dec. 6), his first starting assignment in 21 games dating to midway through the 1991 season ... started and played briefly at right tackle in the following week's 19–0 shutout over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) ... played as reserve at Indianapolis (Dec. 20) ... did not see action in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ✔1991: Development through training camp enabled club to trade longtime starting guard Derek Kennard to New Orleans as part of a deal to acquire cornerback Robert Massey ... lined up at left guard in season opener at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) but suffered pectoral muscle tear ... hindered by the injury over the course of the next six games before being relegated to the injured reserve list on Oct. 19 ... activated Dec. 7 ... did not play in games 14–15 ... saw action as reserve in season finale vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22). ✔1990: Action on offensive line in only two games as the Phoenix starters played 99 percent of the downs from scrimmage (4,957 of combined 5,005 possible downs at the five positions) ... came off bench briefly (24 plays) vs. New England (Nov. 25) when right tackle Tootie Robbins was temporarily hobbled by ankle sprain ... also stepped in for 15 snaps late in game at Dallas (Dec. 16) ... extensive special-teams action on field-goal and point-after-touchdown units. ✔1989: Endured season of on-the-job training at three different positions as a rookie ... started at right tackle for games two-seven, at left guard for games eight-nine, at left tackle for outings 10–11, back to left guard for contests 12–14, then right tackle again for game 15 before finishing the campaign at left guard in the season finale ... earned numerous all-rookie acclaim (United Press International, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest) ... started one game at guard in preseason, then subbed for Robbins (knee) at tackle ... replaced former starter Todd Peat (waived) and fellow rookie Mike Zandofsky at left guard when Robbins returned ... bumped outside to left tackle when Sharpe left game early vs. the N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... stayed there the next two weeks before moving back to guard vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) when Sharpe returned ... replaced Robbins (triceps injury) vs. Denver (Dec. 16) ... shifted back to left guard for the finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) when Robbins returned. ✔College/Personal: All-America honorable mention as both sophomore and senior at Boston College ... only a knee injury as a junior prevented three-time all-America acclaim ... played guard and tackle in college ... led Boston College offensive line that helped quarterback Doug Flutie win the 1984 Heisman Trophy ... the youngest member of B.C.'s 1985 Cotton Bowl team. Wolf was 17 years old when the Golden Eagles left for Dallas on Dec. 26, two days before his 18th birthday ... brother Mike was the starting center for Penn State ... both suffered injuries—Joe (ankle), Mike (knee)—in the same nationally-televised game in 1987, a 27–17 Penn State victory ... all-league and all-Pennsylvania center and defensive tackle at William Allen High School in his native Allentown, Pa. ...

Punter Jeff Feagles, a 1995 Pro Bowler

REVIEW

1995 Review

Nineteen ninety-five hardly followed the script for the Arizona Cardinals.

After finishing 8–8 one year earlier in Buddy Ryan's opening act as head coach and general manager, Arizona entered 1995 flush with optimism. The Cardinals figured they again could hang their collective hat on one of the NFL's sturdiest defensive units. A little offensive improvement and postseason play certainly seemed a reasonable ending to Ryan's second passion play.

Instead, the Cards rewrote the story line with a defense that plummeted in effectiveness and ranking, an offense that showed only modest improvement, ineffective special-teams play, four overtime games that included three straight at home to equal Green Bay's 1987 NFL record, a season-ending four-game losing streak, and losses in seven of the last eight games.

In the wake of the disheartening 4–12 season, the curtain came down quickly on the Ryan era. He was dismissed the day following the Christmas night season-ending loss to the Dallas Cowboys, who returned to Sun Devil Stadium four weeks later (January 28, 1996) to win Super Bowl XXX.

Statistically Speaking

The Cardinals' final 1995 statistics spoke volumes.

Offense—Touchdownless in five games for the second consecutive year, the Cardinal offense ranked 24th in the NFL at 304.1 yards per game, a slight improvement over its 25th-place finish (287.9) in 1994. Most telling were 43 league-leading turnovers.

On the ground, the Cardinals gained just 85.2 yards per game. Only the New York Jets (79.9) were less effective running the football. Arizona posted just three rushing touchdowns, fewest in team history. On third and fourth down, Arizona converted 34.6 percent and 37.5 percent of the time to rank 28th and 30th, respectively. Inside the opposition's 20-yard line ("red zone"), Arizona also ranked last by tallying only 15 touchdowns, a six-point success rate of 30.6 percent. The Cardinals scored 275 points (17.2 per game) to tie the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars for 27th in league scoring. The Cards tallied only two touchdowns on plays of 25 yards or more—a 25-yard reception by Rob Moore at Dallas (Sept. 24) and a 28-yard catch by Anthony Edwards vs. Atlanta (Nov. 30).

The Cardinals also failed to capitalize on takeaways, scoring only 120 points following the NFL-best 42 turnovers forced by the Arizona defense.

At Carolina (Nov. 19), the Cardinals gained 96 total yards, their worst offensive output in 40 years and just the fourth sub-100-yard effort in team history.

However, the offense enjoyed one very bright moment on November 26 when Arizona laid a 40-point, 513-yard hurt on Atlanta at Sun Devil Stadium. It was the Cardinals' best offensive day in both categories since Oct. 2, 1988 against the L.A. Rams at Anaheim (41 points, 519 yards).

Overall, the Arizona offense produced some interesting statistics. The unit's 327 pass completions ranked second in club history, topped only by 347 connections in 1984. Its 3,893 gross yards, 3,503 net yards passing, and 560 pass attempts were the third-highest totals in each category in team annals.

Defense—The decline of the Arizona defense, despite posting league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries, was the most telling aspect of the 1995 Cardinals. After an impressive 1994 debut when it ranked third in the league overall (275.5 yards per game) and led in numerous other categories (interceptions, fewest fourth-quarter points, first downs allowed, opponent third-down conversion efficiency), the unit slipped to 26th overall (356.5), a whopping difference of 81 yards each outing.

Larry Centers earned his first Pro Bowl trip by becoming the first running back in NFL history to catch 100 passes in a single season.

More significantly, the Cards ranked last against the run (140.6) and in scoring defense (422 points, 26.4 points-per-game average). En route to the 422 points, the opposition scored 53 touchdowns. Both figures are second in team annals to the 56 touchdowns and 428 points allowed by the 8–7–1 Cardinals of 1983.

Arizona also ranked 30th in total yards allowed per play (5.7), rushing average (4.5), and passing average (13.1), too.

Long plays continued to plague the Arizona defense. The enemy stung the Cardinals for 69 plays of 20 yards or more (20 touchdowns), 31 plays of 30 yards or more, 15 plays of 40 yards or more, and nine plays of 50 yards or more. On October 1 at Sun Devil Stadium, Kansas City quarterback Steve Bono rambled 76 yards for the longest touchdown run by a quarterback in NFL history.

Two of the 23 fumbles forced by the Cardinals came from an unusual source, the Lions' Barry Sanders, during the pivotal fourth quarter of Arizona's first victory, a 20–17 nailbiter at Pontiac. They were the Detroit star's first fumbles in over 800 touches of the ball.

The takeaway success wasn't the only positive, however.

Five of the last seven opponents were held under 100 yards rushing, including a season-low 34 yards by the Falcons (Nov. 26).

Over the final five contests, the Cardinals allowed just 23 first downs rushing, an average of 4.6 per contest, a figure over one-half the per-game yield of the season's first 11 games (9.5).

Special Teams—Both Cardinal kickers—Pro Bowl punter Jeff Feagles and place kicker Greg Davis—enjoyed noteworthy success in 1995.

The Cardinals' punt-coverage unit, led by Feagles, ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing an average punt return of only 7.6 yards. The Cardinal punting unit finished third in net punting average (38.2) and sixth in gross punting average (43.8). However, Arizona rated 29th in kickoff-return coverage (24.5), 25th in punt-return average (7.5), and 20th in kickoff-return average (20.8). The Cardinals allowed kickoff returns for touchdowns in consecutive road assignments at San Diego (Dec. 9) and Philadelphia (Dec. 17) to equal the franchise record established in 1978.

Pro Bowlers

Despite the Cardinals' 4–12 record, they placed four players—fullback Larry Centers, defensive tackle Eric Swann, cornerback Aeneas Williams, and Feagles—on the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Centers stole the spotlight in 1995, furthering his credentials as the game's finest third-down back. Besides leading the NFL in third-down receptions with 33, the popular Centers became the first running back in league history to shatter the 100-pass reception plateau. He finished with 101 catches to also break the Cardinals' overall single-season receiving record of 91 grabs formerly held by wide receiver J.T. Smith (1987). In the process, Centers led the Cards in receiving for the third consecutive season. In those three campaigns, he has caught 244 passes.

He led Arizona in receiving nine times in 16 games, including a career-best 12 receptions, ranking second on the Cards' all-time single-game list, in the season finale against Dallas. The contest was witnessed by 72,394 fans, the third-largest home crowd in Cardinal history, and a national viewing audience on "Monday Night Football," the Cards' first appearance on the weekly ABC-TV offering since the team's inaugural regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988.

However, it was Centers' tackle-breaking, hurdling abandon and "never-say-die" swagger that solidified him as the fan favorite in Phoenix.

Swann became the first Cardinal defensive lineman to earn a Pro Bowl berth since Don Brumm in 1968 despite missing four early-season games due to arthroscopic removal of torn cartilage in his right knee in September and most of a fifth contest, Nov. 5 at Denver, with the flu. He still led Arizona with 16 quarterback hurries. His 39 solo tackles included eight and one-half career-best quarterback sacks and 15 tackles for loss. He also deflected one pass, recovered two fumbles, and blocked three field-goal attempts.

Now established as one of the NFL's premier cornerbacks, Williams landed his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection with a career-high total of 46.5 solo tackles and 57.5 combined stops. Williams also finished fourth in Cardinal scoring with three touchdowns. He returned two of his team-leading six pass interceptions for touchdowns—28 yards vs. Washington (Oct. 15) and 48 yards vs. Dallas (Dec. 25)—to join Cowboy cornerback and eventual Super Bowl XXX most valuable player Larry Brown as the league's only two players with two interceptions for touchdowns. Williams scored his third 1995 touchdown on a 72-yard return of a blocked field goal at Carolina (Nov. 19).

He registered four takeaways at San Diego (Dec. 9) with two fumble recoveries and two interceptions.

Feagles capped his eighth NFL season with his first Pro Bowl trip. He led the NFC (third in the NFL) in net average at 38.2 yards per boot and ranked second in the NFC in gross average at 43.8. Both are career bests for Feagles. He was named the NFC special teams player-of-the-week for his Nov. 26 effort against Atlanta that produced 48.3-yard gross and 45.6-yard net averages on four punts.

Individually Speaking

The four Cardinal Pro Bowlers weren't the only individual tales to tell in 1995.

Quarterback Dave Krieg became the first Cardinal to register three consecutive 300-yard passing games with outings of 324 at Dallas (Sept. 24), 308 vs. Kansas City (Oct. 1), and 305 at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 8).

The former Seahawk, Chief, and Lion used his 16th NFL season to improve his career statistics to 4,911 pass attempts, 2,866 pass completions, 35,668 yards, 247 touchdown passes, and 187 interceptions. Krieg's 35,668 career passing yards rank eighth in NFL history, trailing only John Elway, Dan Fouts, Dan Marino, Joe Montana, Warren Moon, Fran Tarkenton, and Johnny Unitas. The 247 touchdown passes rank seventh behind Fouts, Sonny Jurgensen, Marino, Montana, Tarkenton, and Unitas.

Krieg's 1995 totals of 304 completions in 521 attempts for 3,554 yards rank second in Card single-season annals to Neil Lomax's 1984 season (345 of 560 passes for 4,614 yards) in all three categories.

During a four-game span (weeks four-seven against Dallas, Kansas City, the N.Y. Giants, and Washington), Krieg completed 94 of 145 passes (.648) for 1,144 yards and five touchdowns. He also strung together six consecutive games (two-seven) with a completion percentage of 60 percent or better, a career first. His 21 interceptions, however, led the NFL.

Davis, while leading the Cardinals in scoring for the fifth consecutive year, broke Jim Bakken's 1967 Cardinal single-season record with 30 field goals to trail only Atlanta's Morten Andersen in the NFC. Davis also equalled two career highs with a 55-yard field goal at Detroit (Sept. 17) and four field goals in one game. The former equalled his own Cardinal record for the time; he accomplished the latter for the fifth (at Detroit), sixth (Atlanta, Nov. 26), and seventh (at Philadelphia, Dec. 17) times.

The 109 points Davis authored were the fourth-best total in Cardinal history and the most since kicker Neil O'Donoghue's 117 points in 1984. Davis closed 1995 by converting 16 of his final 19 three-point attempts.

Running back Garrison Hearst, enjoying his first healthy professional season, joined Ottis Anderson (1979–81, '83–84), John David Crow (1960), Stump Mitchell (1985), Ronald Moore (1993), and Jim Otis (1975) as the sixth Cardinal (10th time) to rush for 1,000 yards. Hearst logged a career-high 122 yards on the ground against the New York Giants at the Meadowlands (Oct. 8).

He also earned the dubious distinction of becoming the first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard season.

Safety Lorenzo Lynch ended the Cards' 20–14 overtime victory over Seattle in dramatic fashion with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime pickoff return for six points in NFL history. It also was the sixth-longest interception return in team history and only the seventh time an NFL overtime game has been decided by an interception return.

Defensive end Clyde Simmons, who tied for fifth in the NFC with 11 quarterback sacks, notched his fifth career touchdown on a 25-yard interception return at San Diego (Dec. 9). The durable Simmons concluded his 10th NFL season by extending his streak of consecutive starts to 141 games. He has not missed an outing in his 156-game professional career and now boasts 93 career quarterback sacks.

Unsung and undrafted rookie running back Ryan Terry found a role returning kickoffs, ranking ninth in the NFC at 21.8 yards in 37 returns. The Cards' longest kickoff return, however, was the work of late-season acquisition LeShon Johnson, a 70-yard dash at San Diego (Dec. 9).

Guard Duval Love was the only offensive lineman to start all 16 games at the same position. Otherwise, the offensive line was in a constant state of flux. Ed Cunningham (eight starts) and Jamie Dukes (eight) shared the center position. Anthony Redmon (eight) and Bernard Dafney (eight) split time at right guard. Ditto Larry Tharpe (six), Joe Wolf (one), Redmon (one), Cecil Gray (four), and Rob Selby (four) at right tackle.

The season-ending Achilles injury to left tackle Ernest Dye (six) on October 8 forced Tharpe (10) to flop from right tackle to the left side for the remainder of the campaign. The same fate befell Wolf the next week (Oct. 15) when the veteran lineman broke his leg versus Washington, sending the right-tackle position to committee.

Dafney, Gray, and Selby were mid-season free-agent signees.

Rookie Frank Sanders impressed as a rookie with 52 receptions for 883 yards and two touchdowns. His 17-yard receiving average ranked second in the NFC to Washington's Henry Ellard (17.9) and second among league rookies to Houston's Chris Sanders (35 rec., 823 yards, 23.5-yard average). The Auburn product flashed big-play ability throughout the season, authoring 15 of the Cards' 36 offensive plays of 25 yards or more, including the two longest, 47- and 48-yard receptions against the Giants and Falcons, respectively.

Game Summaries

Redskins 27, Cardinals 7

Sept. 3, 1995 • R.F.K. Stadium (52,731)

The Cardinals lost for the sixth time in eight consecutive road openers, a 27–7 setback at Washington. The loss snapped the Cards' four-game series winning streak and marked the 15th time in the last 17 R.F.K. Stadium meetings the Redskins have prevailed.

Defensively, Arizona allowed 456 total net yards, its highest yield in 83 games (475 vs. Denver, Dec. 17, 1989). Redskin running back Terry Allen posted 131 yards rushing, the first time in 63 consecutive games an individual reached the 100-yard rushing plateau against a Buddy Ryan-coached defense. The vaunted Card defense also was stung by big plays that included two touchdowns—a 58-yard reverse and a 73-yard pass.

Despite seven new starters, the Cardinals struggled offensively, managing only 88 yards passing. New quarterback Dave Krieg completed 10 of 22 passes for 92 yards and one touchdown. He was intercepted three times. A fourth Redskin pickoff was thrown by running back Larry Centers.

Eagles 31, Cardinals 19

Sept. 10, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (45,004)

Philadelphia tallied touchdowns on its first three second-half possessions to turn its 10–3 halftime advantage into an insurmountable 31–13 lead in Arizona's home opener. The Cards' defense struggled again, allowing 338 total net yards (168 rush, 170 pass).

Both starting quarterbacks—the Cards' Dave Krieg and the Eagles' Randall Cunningham—were benched in the first half. In five possessions, Krieg's second interception was returned 37 yards for a touchdown by Eagle linebacker William Thomas. Krieg's back-up, Mike Buck, saw his first NFL action since Dec. 26, 1993 as a New Orleans Saint.

The Cardinals were held scoreless in their first six possessions. Kicker Greg Davis dented the scoreboard late in the first half with his first field goal of the season, a 21-yarder. Rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders enjoyed his first 100-yard day as a professional with five receptions for 102 yards.

Cardinals 20, Lions 17

Sept. 17, 1995 • Pontiac Silverdome (58,727)

The Cardinals scored 14 points on three consecutive possessions and forced Lion running back Barry Sanders' first two fumbles in over 800 touches of the ball in an eventful fourth quarter to post their first victory of the season. The furious finish overcame a script remindful of Arizona's two season-opening losses—little offense (73 yards at halftime, six points after three quarters, one-for-12 third-down efficiency) and an uncharacteristically charitable defense (358 yards, big plays—39-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Brett Perriman, 47-yard touchdown run by Sanders).

Kicker Greg Davis kept the Cardinals alive by equalling his career high of four field goals, the first a 55-yarder that tied his own franchise record. Quarterback Dave Krieg, who was sacked seven times, authored the game's most dramatic moment when he found wide receiver Anthony Edwards on a fourth-and-10 touchdown pass with 2:31 remaining, followed by a two-point conversion pass to wide receiver Frank Sanders, for the winning points.

Card running back Garrison Hearst posted the first 100-yard game (121 rushing yards) of his career.

Cowboys 34, Cardinals 20

Sept. 24, 1995 • Texas Stadium (64,560)

The Cowboys took control quickly by scoring four of the first five times they had the ball—three touchdowns, one field goal—to jump to leads of 14–0, 21–3, and 24–10 en route to their 10th consecutive victory over the Cardinals.

Arizona flirted with a late comeback by reaching the Dallas 18-yard line with nearly four minutes remaining and trailing 27–13, but quarterback Dave Krieg threw his third interception in the corner of the Cowboy end zone.

The Dallas offense was methodical in amassing 440 total yards without allowing a quarterback sack. Running back Emmitt Smith logged 116 yards rushing and 53 yards receiving. Arizona's bright spot was a 381-yard offensive effort (329 yards passing). Wide receiver Rob Moore caught nine passes for 154 yards and a touchdown. Moore also completed a 33-yard pass to fellow wide receiver Frank Sanders. Running back Larry Centers, the Cards' leading rusher with 29 yards (four attempts), caught seven passes for 83 yards and a touchdown. Krieg enjoyed 24-for-33 accuracy (.727) for 324 yards and the two touchdowns.

Chiefs 24, Cardinals 3

Oct. 1, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (50,211)

Steve Bono's 76-yard touchdown run, the longest scoring rush by a quarterback in NFL history, on the first play of the second quarter provided the first of 24 unanswered Kansas City points in the Chiefs' never-in-doubt 24–3 victory. K.C.'s second touchdown seven minutes later, a one-yard tackle-eligible pass from Bono to Joe Valerio, came five plays after a muffed punt return by the Cardinals gave the Chiefs field position at the Arizona 15-yard line.

Kansas City controlled the game with a 221-yard rushing effort, requiring Bono to throw only 17 passes (seven completions, 78 yards). Conversely, the Cardinals' rushing attack produced just 56 yards, forcing quarterback Dave Krieg to throw 41 times (25 completions, 308 yards).

Arizona missed its opportunity to take an early lead when it was stopped at the Kansas City goal line on a fourth-and-one Larry Centers rush midway through the scoreless first quarter. The Cardinals lost their first two fumbles of the young season and were penalized 11 times (79 yards). Middle linebacker Eric Hill returned from a two-week injury absence (calf) to register 15 combined tackles in a starting role.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21 (OT)

Oct. 8, 1995 • Giants Stadium (68,463)

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass to take a 21–14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21–21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession. Sanders made six catches for 108 yards and his first two NFL touchdowns. Krieg became the first Cardinal in history to log three consecutive 300-yard passing efforts. Running back Garrison Hearst added a career-high 122 yards rushing.

Cardinals 24, Redskins 20

Oct. 15, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (42,370)

The Cardinals earned their first NFC East Division victory with the fifth and final lead change of the day when Arizona quarterback Dave Krieg found running back Garrison Hearst for a one-yard touchdown pass with 1:16 remaining.

The return of defensive tackle Eric Swann (5 solo tackles including 2 tackles for loss, 2 tackle assists, 6 quarterback hurries, 1.5 quarterback sacks) led a resurgent defense that limited Washington to 42 net yards rushing and scored the unit's first touchdown when cornerback Aeneas Williams returned his first pickoff 28 yards for a second-quarter touchdown and the game's first lead change. The defense also benefitted from the Cardinals' 13:40 time-of-possession advantage due in part to the offense's ability to convert eight of 13 third-down opportunities and its 13-play, 85-yard scoring drive that devoured 9:13 of the third quarter en route to running back Larry Centers' nine-yard touchdown reception from Krieg that produced lead change number three.

Centers registered 85 total yards with seven receptions for 52 yards and four rushes for 33 yards and his first rushing touchdown of the season. Hearst contributed 92 total yards with 79 rushing yards on 24 carries and 13 yards receiving on three catches that included the pivotal touchdown, his first career six-pointer through the air.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14 (OT)

Oct. 29, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (39,600)

Arizona went into overtime for the second time in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14-0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble.

Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime to eventually knot the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their final three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback.

After Card running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring overtime interception return in NFL history. The Cardinal defense forced seven turnovers (four interceptions, three fumble recoveries). Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Broncos 38, Cardinals 6

Nov. 5, 1995 • Mile High Stadium (71,488)

The Broncos scored the first five times they had the ball—four touchdowns, one field goal—to take to an insurmountable 31–6 lead en route to a 38–6 victory, equalling the most points allowed by the Cardinals under Head Coach Buddy Ryan. The Broncos pounced quickly, scoring two touchdowns in the game's first 6:40 to take a 14–0 lead.

In becoming the fourth Cardinal opponent to reach 400 total yards, the Broncos accumulated 188 of their 406 total yards on six big plays over 20 yards, including two touchdown passes of 47 and 23 yards.

Denver quarterback John Elway stole the spotlight with 16-of-21 accuracy for 256 yards and three touchdowns without interception to become the seventh NFL quarterback to surpass 40,000 career passing yards.

Arizona's rushing defense succumbed to a 148-yard effort by the Broncos, principally authored by rookie running back Terrell Davis, who became the fifth Card opponent of the season to crack 100 yards rushing (135 yards).

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24 (OT)

Nov. 12, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (51,342)

The Cardinals' third overtime game in five contests ended in sudden death for the second time. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon.

The Cardinals inched to within 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Greg Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Rob Moore, knotting the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play.

It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to dramatically end the contest. Prior to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Cris Carter, who enjoyed a banner day with 12 grabs for 157 yards and two touchdowns. Garrison Hearst posted his third 100-yard game of the season with 103 yards on 18 carries for Arizona.

Panthers 27, Cardinals 7

Nov. 19, 1995 • Clemson Stadium (49,582)

The Cardinals' lowest offensive output in 40 years—96 total yards—led to Arizona's second one-sided loss in a span of three games as the expansion Carolina Panthers posted a 27–7 victory in the first meeting between the two teams.

Offensive woes punctuated the Cards' afternoon. The Cardinal offense was held scoreless for the first time in 1995, and without a touchdown for the third time. It ran only 44 plays, the lowest total in 49 games (Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Dallas). Seven of Arizona's 11 possessions, including the first five, ended in three plays or less. Besides the lowest total-yardage output since 1955 (86 yards vs. Pittsburgh, Sept. 26), Arizona became only the fourth Cardinal team to log less than 100 total yards. It also marked the second time in club annals the Cardinals failed to post a first down rushing. Twelve rushing attempts equalled the team's second lowest all-time total.

Arizona's defense tallied the only points when linebacker Seth Joyner blocked a Carolina field-goal attempt on the last play of the first half. Cornerback Aeneas Williams scooped the bouncing ball and raced 72 yards for a touchdown, cutting the Panthers' lead to 14–7.

Carolina regained the game's momentum by posting two field goals and a 23-yard touchdown burst by running back Anthony Johnson, respectively, on its first three second-half possessions.

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37 (OT)

Nov. 26, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (35,147)

The Cardinals mustered 513 yards total offense and 40 points, their first 500-yard game and highest point total since a 519-yard, 41-point outburst at the L.A. Rams on Oct. 2, 1988. The game also was Arizona's third consecutive overtime home contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record.

Special teams dictated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an Arizona interception on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession and fumbled the ball to the Cardinals at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play.

Quarterback Dave Krieg's 413 passing bettered the 400-yard plateau for only the fifth time in team history.

Giants 10, Cardinals 6

Nov. 30, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (44,246)

Despite gaining 342 total yards, Arizona went touchdownless for the fourth time in 1995. A fine defensive effort that limited New York to 199 total yards and 10 points, both season opponent lows, just 66 yards rushing, 14 first downs, and 55 offensive plays went for naught. Three misfirings inside the Giants' 20-yard line eventually proved fatal for Arizona.

The uneventful first half concluded in a 6–3 Arizona lead on the strength of two Greg Davis field goals from 44 and 28 yards. New York opened the second half by driving for the game's only touchdown, a 12-yard pass from quarterback Dave Brown to wide receiver Mike Sherrard.

Cardinal rookie quarterback Stoney Case received his first taste of NFL action from scrimmage in the fourth quarter. Case drove the Cards 32 yards to New York's 12-yard line, due in part to his first professional pass completion on his first attempt, a 19-yard toss to running back Larry Centers. Case then threw an interception that ended the threat.

On Arizona's final possession that began with 1:50 remaining, starting quarterback Dave Krieg returned from a neck "stinger" to drive the Cards from their own 11-yard line to New York's five, only to be turned away four times on incomplete passes.

Chargers 28, Cardinals 25

Dec. 9, 1995 • San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium (55,258)

The Chargers scored 21 points in a span of 6:18 to blow open an otherwise close contest and overcome six turnovers in the Cards' first appearance at San Diego since 1987. San Diego also dodged two bullets when the Cardinals missed a 37-yard field goal (first half) and fumbled at the Chargers' one-yard line (second half).

The Cardinals took a short-lived 14–7 lead late in the second quarter when defensive end Clyde Simmons intercepted a Stan Humphries pass and rambled 25 yards for his fifth career touchdown. The Chargers began their scoring barrage on their ensuing possession, driving 89 yards in 12 plays for Ronnie Harmon's three-yard touchdown pass reception just before halftime. It continued when Andre Coleman returned the opening kickoff of the second half 92 yards for a touchdown, followed by a 38-yard Humphries-to-Mark Seay touchdown pass on the Chargers' next possession.

Arizona made things interesting. Trailing 28–17, the Cards drove 67 yards in 12 plays on their final possession, culminating with wide receiver Stevie Anderson's first Cardinal touchdown, a 12-yard toss from quarterback Dave Krieg. The pair followed with a two-point conversion pass to cut San Diego's lead to 28–25 with 1:43 remaining. Arizona's ensuing on-sides kickoff was unsuccessful.

Card cornerback Aeneas Williams sparkled with 2 pass interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 fumble caused, and 7 solo tackles.

Eagles 21, Cardinals 20

Dec. 17, 1995 • Veterans Stadium (62,076)

Despite jumping to a 17–0 first-half lead, the Cardinals self-destructed in the second half by ending five of their eight possessions with turnovers—three fumbles by running back Garrison Hearst, including one at the Philadelphia three-yard line, and two pass interceptions.

Arizona also again fell victim to big plays, allowing a kickoff return for a touchdown for the second consecutive week, this time for 86 yards by the Eagles' Derrick Witherspoon late in the first half that cut the Cards' advantage to 17–7 at intermission, and second-half touchdown passes of 21 and 37 yards.

Otherwise, the Arizona defense was imposing, making four takeaways (three interceptions, one fumble recovery), limiting the Eagles to 76 yards rushing, the fifth time in six weeks the opposition failed to hit 100 team yards on the ground, 11 first downs, the 1995 opponent low, and 274 total yards, the second lowest opponent total of the season.

The Cards were able to register only one touchdown after driving inside the Philadelphia 20-yard line six times. Kicker Greg Davis converted four of the other five possessions into field goals of 37, 35, 37, and 35 yards to equal his career best for the seventh time.

Hearst's 95-yard rushing day pushed him past the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 13

Dec. 25, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (72,394)

The Cardinals concluded a 4–12 season with their fourth consecutive setback. Cowboy wide receiver Kevin Williams led the 474-yard Dallas offensive barrage, a season high for Arizona opponents, with nine receptions for 203 yards (equalling the third highest all-time total against the Cardinals) and two touchdowns, three rushes for 21 yards, and four kickoff returns for 83 yards and a Cowboy team-record 307 all-purpose yards.

Dallas running back Emmitt Smith's three-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run, his 25th six-pointer of the season, broke the NFL record for single-season touchdowns. Cardinal running back Larry Centers also entered the record book with career highs of 12 pass receptions for 172 yards that raised his season reception total to 101, setting the Cardinals' single-season reception record and making him the first running back in NFL history to reach 100 receptions.

The Arizona offense went touchdownless for the fifth time while watching its league-leading giveaway total reach 42 with two interceptions and one fumble.

Former Cardinal offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, a 1995 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee

Franchise History

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League, boast the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team had to disband.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park on Chicago's south side.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925.

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Bill Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946. And in 1947, the "million dollar backfield" was completed when halfback Charley Trippi became a Cardinal.

Coached by Jimmy Conzelman, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and a 28–21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL championship game on the frozen Comiskey Park. turf.

But the 1947 title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization when the April death of Bidwill deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years. With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet Bidwill, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC East Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ended the Cards' post-season dream in the first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of longtime Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first post-season berth since 1982. However, the Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Three coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington Redskin assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named to replace him and serve as general manager, too, on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan on February 7, 1996.

On March 17, 1994, President Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as the host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame grew to 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a member of the popular ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" broadcast crew, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. Wilson currently serves the Cardinals as a vice president.

Former Cardinal offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, currently a member of the ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" broadcast team, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

Overtime Games (8–7–2)

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked, and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card linebacker Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave Minnesota 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-tight end Wendall Gaines toss. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore to knot the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14–0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns—an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime and eventually knotted the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their final three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback. After Cardinal running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 • Giants Stadium

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass, to take a 21–14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21–21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

Nov. 27, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19–16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

Oct. 30, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 • R.F.K Stadium

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 • Kingdome

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Place kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27–27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 • Veterans Stadium

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10–10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10–3 deficit with only 2:39 left in regulation with a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. Included in the Cards' season-high 461 yards total offense was 390 passing yards (30-of-48) by Lomax. Green (6 rec., 100 yards) and J.T. Smith (10 rec., 131 yards) enjoyed outstanding efforts. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field goal wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 • Cleveland Stadium

Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 35-yard field goal with 5:27 gone in overtime to give the Cardinals a 27–24 win over the Browns. The Cards jumped to a 17–3 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by Lionel Washington. Cleveland stormed back in a torrential rain to score 21 points on its next three possessions to take a 24–17 advantage with just 38 seconds remaining. With the ball on the Cards' 37-yard line, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with Ottis Anderson on a middle screen for 41 yards, found Stump Mitchell for another 15 yards, then tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley to tie the game at 24–24 with four seconds to play. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for O'Donoghue's game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 • Busch Stadium

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line yard prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed an 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 • Busch Stadium

The Cardinals jumped to a 24–6 halftime lead. Atlanta roared back with 21 points after halftime to win 33–27. Quarterbacks Jim Hart of the Cardinals (344 yards passing) and the Falcons' Steve Bartkowski (378 yards) combined for 722 aerial yards as the teams compiled 978 yards total offense—Cardinals 415, Falcons 563. Hart connected on a pair of long touchdown tosses to Ray Combs (38 yards) and Pat Tilley (50 yards) in the first quarter, and Ottis Anderson scored on an eight-yard run in the second stanza before the Falcons defense stiffened. Atlanta limited the Cards after halftime to minus five yards rushing, 109 yards total offense, and finished the day with five interceptions. Falcon running back Lynn Cain scored twice on runs of five and 10 yards, the latter forcing the overtime period. Atlanta won the coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33–27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 • Candlestick Park

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21–21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. San Francisco opened the scoring when running back Paul Hofer scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Steve DeBerg in the second period. The Cards answered with touchdown passes from Jim Hart to running back Theotis Brown (13 yards) and tight end Doug Marsh (five yards) to take a 14–7 lead. After a 49er score tied the game, the Cards drove 75 yards in eight plays to lead 21–14, but allowed San Francisco to drive 80 yards in 53 seconds in the last two minutes, capped by Hofer's second touchdown run, a 26-yarder with 58 ticks left in regulation. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 • Busch Stadium

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field goal glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24–21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired. The Cardinals took a 14–7 halftime lead on scoring runs of two and one yards by Jim Otis. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach connected with wide receiver Tony Hill from 37 and six yards to give the Cowboys a 21–14 third-quarter lead. The Cards tied the game with a one-yard touchdown pass from Hart to running back Wayne Morris early in the fourth period. Hart suffered a separated left shoulder on a sack by Cowboy lineman Harvey Martin late in the game and the following week saw his streak of consecutive starts end at 64 games.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 • Busch Stadium

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a 21-yarder in the extra period for a 23–20 Cardinal victory. With the Cards nursing a 14–13 lead entering the fourth period due to a missed 49er extra point, San Francisco's Delvin Williams, who logged 194 yards rushing, scored the third of his three rushing touchdowns from one yard to give his club a 20–14 lead. Card quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown toss with eight minutes left in the game, but Bakken's conversion was blocked and the score remained tied at 20–20. The Cards won the coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 • Busch Stadium

In one of the most memorable finishes in franchise history, the Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead with a 7–2 record following a thrilling 20–17 win. Washington took a 14–3 lead into the fourth quarter and a 17–10 advantage with 1:43 to play before the Cardinals took possession on their own 39-yard line. Quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Earl Thomas for 19 yards to give the Cards a first-and-goal situation at the Washington six-yard line with 50 seconds remaining. After three incompletions, Hart faced fourth-and-goal with 25 ticks left. Speedy wide receiver Mel Gray lined wide right against Redskin cornerback Pat Fischer and ran a quick slant. The two Pro Bowlers ran stride for stride. Hart delivered the ball to the end zone, and Gray emerged from a tangle of arms, legs, and elbows with the ball, then dropped it when Fischer stripped him. After one official ruled incomplete pass and another touchdown, a conference ensued. Referee Fred Silva emerged and signaled touchdown. Jim Bakken converted the extra point to send the game into overtime. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 • Texas Stadium

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37 yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

November 26, 1995 • Cardinals 40, Atlanta 37-OT (H)

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game and highest point total since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive overtime home contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the ebb and flow of the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card linebacker Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cardinals at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Arizona wide receiver Rob Moore (8–121, 1 TD) and running back Larry Centers (7–101) both cracked 100 yards receiving. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

✔Series Notes

Arizona holds a 12–6 overall advantage in its encounters with Atlanta ... the Cards were victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16–10 defeat on Dec. 11, 1966 ... at one stretch in the series, the Cardinals won five consecutive games (1971–76) ... Arizona owns a 6–1 mark at home against Atlanta ... 1996 marks the first time the teams will not meet in the regular season since 1988.

December 18, 1994 • Cardinals 28, Cincinnati 7 (H)

The Cardinals tallied touchdowns on three consecutive first-half possessions to seize an insurmountable 21–0 lead, raising Arizona's record (8–7) over .500 in December for the first time since 1984. The one-sided contest featured the Cards' 41:31–18:29 time-of-possession advantage and a smothering defensive effort that limited the Bengals to 189 total net yards (33 in the first half) and produced two turnovers (one interception, one recovered fumble). Arizona's special teams posted a third turnover (recovered fumble). Running back Garrison Hearst authored the Cards' first two touchdowns, a one-yard run and a 10-yard pass to running back Larry Centers. A 15-yard connection from quarterback Jay Schroeder to wide receiver Ricky Proehl early in the second quarter produced the third touchdown. Centers, who later rushed for the final six points on a 10-yard draw play, caught four passes to raise his season total to 72, breaking Otis Anderson's 70-catch 1984 single-season franchise reception record for running backs.

✔Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bengals have met just five times in regular-season play ... Cincinnati holds a 3–2 advantage ... the home team has won each contest ... Cincinnati handed the Cards a 21–14 defeat in Riverfront Stadium in the 1988 season opener, the Cardinals' first game representing Arizona ... in 1994, the first meeting in Arizona, the Cards prevailed 28–7 ... the Bengals won the first two contests in Riverfront Stadium—42–34 in 1973 and 34–28 in 1979 ... the Cardinals collected a 41–27 victory in St. Louis in 1985.

December 25, 1995 • Dallas 37, Cardinals 13 (H)

The Cardinals concluded a 4–12 season with their fourth consecutive setback, a one-sided home-field Christmas night loss that never was in doubt when the Cowboys grabbed a 14–0 lead four minutes into the game on a 25-yard pass from quarterback Troy Aikman to wide receiver Kevin Williams and a 32-yard interception return by defensive back Brock Marion on the Cards' third play from scrimmage. Arizona made a brief run at the Cowboys by scoring the first 10 points of the second half on a 48-yard interception return by Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams and a 23-yard Greg Davis field goal seven plays after Dallas fumbled the ensuing kickoff. Williams led the 474-yard Dallas offensive barrage, a season high for Arizona opponents, with a Cowboy team-record 307 all-purpose yards—nine receptions for 203 yards and two touchdowns, three rushes for 21 yards, and four kickoff returns for 83 yards. Dallas running back Emmitt Smith's three-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run, his 25th six-pointer of the season, broke the NFL record for single-season touchdowns. Cardinal running back Larry Centers posted career highs of 12 pass receptions for 172 yards, raising his season total to 101, setting the Cardinals' single-season reception record and becoming the first running back in NFL history to crack the 100-reception plateau. The Arizona offense went touchdownless for the fifth time and watched its league-leading giveaway total reach 42 with two interceptions and one fumble.

✔Series Notes
Dallas holds a 44–20–1 series lead and owns an 11-game winning streak, including sweeps each of the past five seasons ... the Cards swept both 1989 contests for the first time since 1970 ... December 20, 1992 • Indianapolis 16, Cardinals 13 (A)

Despite a 146-yard rushing performance by Arizona running back Johnny Johnson, the Cardinals could not overcome a rash of defensive injuries, three second-half pass interceptions by Colt defensive back Mike Prior, and Indianapolis quarterback Jeff George, who completed 25 of 41 passes for 328 yards, including a key 57-yard third-quarter touchdown connection with running back Anthony Johnson. The Cardinals took a 10–0 first-half lead on a 10-yard run by J. Johnson and a 28-yard Greg Davis field goal following an interception by safety Michael Zordich. After A. Johnson's touchdown reception knotted the score at 10–10, the contest became a chess match. The Cards tied the score at 13–13 with 3:39 to play on a 48-yard field goal by Davis after linebacker Freddie Joe Nunn sacked George, stripped him of the ball, and outside linebacker Steve Hyche recovered the fumble near midfield. The Colts then drove 50 yards in nine plays and kicker Dean Biasucci delivered his third field goal, a 42-yard game-winner with 49 seconds to play. The Cardinals were poised to pull even in the game's waning moments after two Chris Chandler pass completions and a 15-yard personal foul by Colt linebacker Chip Banks put the Cards on the Indianapolis 32-yard line with 19 seconds remaining. But Prior's third pickoff, a diving grab of a deflected Chandler pass, sealed the outcome.

✔Series Notes
The Cardinals hold a 6–5 all-time advantage ... the Colts' 16–13 victory in 1992 broke a streak of four consecutive Cardinal victories ... the Colts won the first three matchups in 1961 (16–0), 1964 (47–27), and 1968 (28–0) ... in the Cards' last four wins, and the last five games overall, four have been decided by a touchdown or less ... the Cardinals came away with two straight victories at Baltimore in 1980 (17–10) and 1981 (35–24), edged the Colts in the Hoosier Dome at Indianapolis in 1984 (34–33), then defeated the Colts at Sun Devil Stadium in 1990 (20–17).

November 4, 1990 • Miami 23, Cardinals 3 (A)
The Dolphins controlled the ball and the Cardinals in a methodical 23–3 victory. Differences of nine minutes in time of possession and 14 offensive plays highlighted Miami's statistical advantages. In the pivotal third quarter with the Cardinals facing a 13–3 deficit, the Dolphins held the football for 12:58 of the stanza's 15 minutes and tallied 10 points to pad their lead to the final margin of 23–3. The NFL-leading Miami defense stymied the Cardinal offense, limiting the visitors to 205 total yards, including 74 net yards rushing. The Cardinal offense drove across midfield only twice and failed to score a touchdown for the second time in 1990.

✔Series Notes
Miami makes its first visit to Arizona ... the Cardinals made their first appearance at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1990. ... the Dolphins are one of three NFL teams the Cards have yet to defeat in regular-season play ... November 12, 1995 • Minnesota 30, Cardinals 24-OT (H)
For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the day. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave the Vikings 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-Wendall Gaines toss. Arizona's two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore knotted the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. The Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter, who enjoyed a banner day with 12 grabs for 157 yards and two touchdowns. Card running back Garrison Hearst posted his third 100-yard game of the season with 103 yards on 18 carries for Arizona.

✔Series Notes
The Cardinals maintain an 8–6 advantage ... last year the Vikings edged Arizona 30–24 in overtime at Sun Devil Stadium ... prior to 1995, Arizona cruised to a 17–7 victory in 1994 after Minnesota outscored the Cardinals by a combined 62–7 in two 1991 contests—34–7 in the Metrodome and 28–0 at Sun Devil Stadium ... the Vikings defeated the Cards 30–14 at Minnesota in the first round of 1974 playoff action ... the Cards' 56 points in a 56–14 drubbing of the Vikings at Metropolitan Stadium in 1963 stands as the most points allowed by a Viking opponent and the fourth highest single-game total in Cardinal history.

October 10, 1993 • New England 23, Cardinals 21 (H)

New England earned new Head Coach Bill Parcells his first victory at the helm with a ball-control offense that ran 80 plays, gained 432 total yards, and notched 25 first downs while maintaining a 13:04 (36:28–23:32) time-of-possession advantage despite the loss of starting quarterback Drew Bledsoe on the final series of the first half. Two Cardinal turnovers in the final 1:37 of the first stanza—fumbled punt, intercepted pass—handed the Pats two field goals to shave the Cards' lead to 14–13. Yet despite a third field goal by the Pats' Scott Sisson, a fourth-quarter pass interception by Card safety John Booty and a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Randal Hill staked the Cards to a 21–16 lead. But lightning struck with 5:04 remaining on a seemingly inconsequential 13-yard pass completion from fill-in quarterback Scott Secules to fullback Kevin Turner, who, appearing tackled, lateraled to running back Leonard Russell who covered 69 more yards to the Cardinal two-yard line. The game-winning two-yard touchdown pass from Secules to tight end Ben Coates followed two plays later. Cardinal wide receiver Ricky Proehl caught two first-quarter touchdown passes from Beuerlein, his third consecutive game with scoring receptions. Cardinal rookie running back Garrison Hearst's 55-yard rush was the longest by a Cardinal since 1985.

✔Series Notes

In eight games against New England, the Cardinals have been defeated just twice, 16–6 loss in 1978 and 23–21 in 1993 ... the latter defeat marked the end of four consecutive Card victories in the series—27–20 in 1981, 33–10 in 1984, 34–14 in 1990, and 24–10 in 1991 ... after encounters with the Patriots just three times in the 1970s and twice in the 1980s, the Cardinals play New England for the fourth time in the 1990s.

Two defensive touchdowns by cornerback Aeneas Williams—20-yard fumble return, 45-yard interception return—staked the Cardinals to a 17–7 lead, but New Orleans rallied to win 20–17. Williams' first two professional touchdowns loomed as the difference as both offenses struggled, even after a 48-yard third quarter field goal by the Saints' Morten Andersen closed the gap to 17–10. But New Orleans' opening fourth-quarter possession produced a six-play, 69-yard scoring drive, capped by a game-tying 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Wade Wilson to wide receiver Quinn Early. On the Cards' ensuing possession, quarterback Chris Chandler was intercepted by Saint safety Gene Atkins. His 37-yard return set the table for Andersen's game-winning 38-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter. The Card defense posted good-enough-to-win numbers, allowing only 272 total yards (96 rushing, 176 passing) while posting two quarterback sacks and Williams' two scores.

✔Series Notes

This season's meeting marks the fifth time in the past seven seasons the teams have met in regular-season play ...the Cardinals maintain a slim 10–9 lead in the series that dates to 1967 ... the Saints have won all four contests in the '90s—28–7 in 1990, 27–3 in 1991, 30–21 in 1992, and 20–17 in 1993 ... the two teams combined for 93 points in a 51–42 Saints win in 1969, just 10 shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined points in a single game, and set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in a game as quarterbacks Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring passes ... though it was a preseason game, the Cardinals provided New Orleans its first victory as a new franchise, a 23–14 decision at Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

November 30, 1995 • N.Y. Giants 10, Cardinals 6 (H)

A fine Arizona defensive effort that limited New York to 199 total yards and 10 points, both opponent season lows, 66 yards rushing, 14 first downs, and 55 offensive plays went for naught. Arizona went touchdownless for the fourth time in 1995. Three misfirings inside the Giants' 20-yard line eventually proved fatal for Arizona. An otherwise uneventful first half concluded in a 6–3 Arizona lead on the strength of two Greg Davis field goals from 44 and 28 yards. New York opened the second half by driving for the game's only touchdown, a 12-yard pass from quarterback Dave Brown to wide receiver Mike Sherrard. Cardinal rookie quarterback Stoney Case received his first taste of NFL action from scrimmage in the fourth quarter when Krieg temporarily was forced from the game. Case completed his first NFL pass attempt, a 19-yard toss to running back Larry Centers. On Arizona's final possession that began with 1:50 remaining, it drove from its own 11-yard line to New York's five, only to be turned away four times on incomplete passes. Defensive tackle Eric Swann blocked a second-half Giant field-goal attempt.

✔Series Notes

One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 21–9–1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 69–36–2 overall dating to 1926 ... the Cardinals snapped a 10-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a dramatic 10–9 victory in the Meadowlands in 1994 ... a 19–0 shutout at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992 broke the Giants' eight-game winning streak in the series ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14–0 halftime deficit for a 26–14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cardinals' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27–24 Cardinal victory on Dec. 13, 1987.

✔Last Meeting

October 22, 1978 • N.Y. Jets 23, Cardinals 10 (A)

The Cardinals played without four offensive starters—quarterback Jim Hart, left guard Bob Young, left tackle Roger Finnie, and tight end Eason Ramson. The teams matched rushing touchdowns and field goals for a 10–10 halftime tie, but the Jets added a touchdown and two more Pat Leahy field goals in the third quarter for the final 23–10 margin. The loss dropped the Cardinals' record to 0–6 in Bud Wilkinson's first year as head coach. Second-year quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz, the Cardinals' first-round draft choice the year before (1977), started his first NFL game and directed the Cardinals on a 58-yard touchdown drive on the opening series.

✔Series Notes

The two relative strangers have not met since 1978 ... the 1996 encounter with the Jets, the fourth in the series, will leave the Oakland Raiders as the only team (aside from the expansion Carolina and Jacksonville franchises) the Cards have met fewer times (three) in regular-season play ... the Cards maintain a 2–1 edge in the abbreviated series ... in the first two meetings, the Cardinals came away with a 17–10 victory at Busch Stadium in St. Louis and a 37–6 thrashing of the Jets at Shea Stadium in 1975 ... the Jets' victory occurred in the 1978 meeting.

December 10, 1989 – L.A. Raiders 16, Cardinals 14 (A)

The Cardinals lost for the fourth consecutive week and for the third time in as many outings under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann, a 16–14 defeat to the Raiders at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The Cardinal defense posted its strongest effort of the season, holding the Raiders without a touchdown until their final possession. Raider quarterback Steve Beuerlein completed only 13 of 30 passes and was sacked four times. The Cards also forced two fumbles and deflected five of Beuerlein's passes at the line of scrimmage. Six Raider drives ended in field-goal attempts (three successful) and a goal-line stand nearly kept the Raiders out of the end zone in the final minute. Trailing 14–9 with less than 10 minutes remaining, the Raiders covered 46 yards on 13 plays to score the winning touchdown, but only after running seven plays inside the Cardinal 10-yard line. Quarterback Tom Tupa made his NFL punting debut for the Cards in relief of injured regular Rich Camarillo. The Arizona rushing attack cracked the 100-yard plateau for the first time in six games.

✔Series Notes

The 1996 preseason meeting will be played at Sun Devil Stadium just five days short of the 20-year anniversary of the inaugural NFL game in Arizona ... in that landmark preseason contest and the only August meeting in history between the two teams, the Raiders defeated the Cards 20–9 on Aug. 7, 1976 at Sun Devil Stadium before a crowd of 33,216 in the first professional football game played in the stadium that would become the Cardinals' home 12 years later ... the two teams have met just three times in regular-season play ... the Raiders hold a 2–1 advantage ... the Raiders won 17–10 at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1973 and at the L.A. Memorial Coliseum by a 16–14 count in 1989 ... the Cards' lone triumph was a 34–24 win at the Coliseum in 1983.

December 17, 1995 • Philadelphia 21, Cardinals 20 (A)

Despite jumping to a 17–0 first-half lead, the Cardinals self-destructed. They ended five of their eight second-half possessions with turnovers—three fumbles by running back Garrison Hearst, including one at the Philadelphia three-yard line, and two pass interceptions. Overall, the Cards were able to register only one touchdown after driving inside the Philadelphia 20-yard line six times. Arizona also fell victim to the big play, allowing a kickoff return for a touchdown for the second consecutive week, this time for 86 yards by the Eagles' Derrick Witherspoon late in the first half that cut the Cards' advantage to 17–7 at intermission, and second-half touchdown passes of 21 and 37 yards from quarterback Rodney Peete to tight end Reggie Johnson and wide receiver Calvin Williams, respectively. The Arizona defense was imposing, making four takeaways (three interceptions, one fumble recovery) and limiting the Eagles to 76 yards rushing, 11 first downs, and 274 total yards. Kicker Greg Davis converted four of the other five possessions into field goals of 37, 35, 37, and 35 yards to equal his career best for the seventh time. Hearst's 95-yard rushing day pushed him past the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career.

✔Series Notes

The Eagles hold a slight 48–46–5 edge in the series that dates to 1935 ... the teams have split four of the past six years (1990–91, '93–94) ... December 9, 1995 • San Diego 28, Cardinals 25 (A)

The Chargers hung a 21-point scoring outburst on Arizona in a span of 6:18 to blow open an otherwise close contest and overcome six turnovers in the Cards' first appearance at San Diego since 1987. San Diego also dodged two bullets when the Cardinals missed a 37-yard field goal (first half) and fumbled at the Chargers' one-yard line (second half). The Cardinals took a short-lived 14–7 lead late in the second quarter when defensive end Clyde Simmons intercepted a Stan Humphries pass and rambled 25 yards for his fifth career touchdown. The Chargers began their scoring barrage on their ensuing possession, driving 89 yards in 12 plays for running back Ronnie Harmon's three-yard touchdown pass reception just before halftime. It continued when Andre Coleman returned the second-half kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown, followed by a 38-yard Humphries-to-Mark Seay touchdown pass on the Chargers' next possession. Trailing 28–17, the Cards drove 67 yards in 12 plays on their final possession, culminating with wide receiver Stevie Anderson's first Cardinal touchdown, a 12-yard toss from quarterback Dave Krieg. The pair followed with a two-point conversion pass to cut San Diego's lead to 28–25 with 1:43 remaining. Arizona's ensuing on-sides kickoff was recovered by the Chargers who ran out the clock. Card defensive back Aeneas Williams sparkled with 2 pass interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 fumble caused, and 6 solo tackles. Running back Larry Centers grabbed nine pass receptions to raise his season total to 86.

✔Series Notes

The Cards and Chargers have met seven times dating to 1971 with San Diego holding a 6–1 edge ... the Chargers won the first two meetings at Jack Murphy Stadium by scores of 20–17 in 1971 and 43–24 in 1976 ... after the Cards posted a 44–14 triumph at St. Louis in 1983, San Diego swept the next four encounters with a 28–24 home-field victory in 1987, victories of 24–13 in 1989 and 27–21 in 1992, both at Sun Devil Stadium, and a 28–25 triumph last year at Jack Murphy Stadium ... in preseason play, the Cards hold a 6–4 advantage over the Chargers.

September 4, 1994 • L.A. Rams 14, Cardinals 12 (A)

A stifling defensive effort could not overcome inopportune offensive turnovers as the Cardinals fell to the Rams. The Cards prevailed in every statistical category except one—scoring! L.A. gained only 152 total yards (50 rushing, 102 passing) and completed just six passes. Ram runner Jerome Bettis was limited to 52 yards on 21 carries. Arizona enjoyed a decisive 38:22–21:38 advantage in time of possession. But the sluggish Cardinal offense, which gained only 230 total yards, also led to both L.A. touchdowns—a 74-yard return of fullback Larry Centers' first-quarter fumble by Ram defensive back Todd Lyght, and a three-play, 55-yard drive that followed a midfield pass interception by Ram defensive back Marquez Pope. Cardinal cornerback James Williams recovered a fumble, intercepted a pass, deflected two passes, and made two tackles, including a touchdown-saving stop of Ram wide receiver Jessie Hester inside the Arizona five-yard line.

✔Series Notes

First meeting since the Rams moved to St. Louis in 1995 ... the Rams hold a 12–17–2 advantage in the series dating back to 1946 when the two teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... the Rams' narrow 14–12 victory in the 1994 season opener ended a stretch of three consecutive Cardinal victories ... the Rams handed the Cards a 35–23 defeat in a first-round playoff game on December 27, 1975 at the L.A. December 27, 1992 • Tampa Bay 7, Cardinals 3 (H)

Six Cardinal turnovers—five interceptions, one fumble—marred a brilliant defensive effort as the Cards closed 4–12 for the second consecutive season. Statistically, the Cards enjoyed the best of the fight, commanding advantages in total net yards (353–240), first downs (21–12) and time of possession (34:46–25:14). The Card offense moved the ball consistently without scoring, however, stalling in Tampa Bay territory on nine of 13 possessions, including three times inside the Bucs' 20-yard line. Defensively, the Cards limited Tampa Bay's offense to 30 rushing yards, sacked quarterback Vinny Testaverde three times, and intercepted one pass. Tampa Bay was stymied into zero or one first down on 11 of 14 possessions and did not make a first down via the rush, equalling a Cardinal opponent record. The contest also is remembered for the deteriorated playing field which led to six consecutive missed field goals—three each by the Cards' Greg Davis and the Bucs' Eddie Murray.

✔Series Notes
The Cardinals and Buccaneers have met 11 times with the Cardinals holding a 6–5 edge in the series ... the series began in 1977 when the Buccaneers prevailed 17–7 at Tampa Stadium, the second-year franchise's first home victory in its final home game of the year and 14th overall ... the Cards enjoyed a string of five consecutive victories with home-and-road conquests of the Bucs in 1986, 1987, and a single road win in 1988 ... the Buccaneers, however, have won the last three encounters—14–13 in 1989 and 23–7 and 7–3 in 1992 ... of the 11 meetings, only four have been staged on the Cardinals' home field.

October 15, 1995 • Cardinals 24, Washington 20 (H)

The Cardinals earned their first NFC East Division victory of the season with the fifth and final lead change of the day when Arizona quarterback Dave Krieg found running back Garrison Hearst in the corner of the Washington end zone for a one-yard touchdown pass with 1:16 remaining. The return of defensive tackle Eric Swann led a resurgent defense that limited Washington to 42 net yards rushing and scored the unit's first touchdown of the season when Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams returned his first pickoff of the campaign 28 yards for a second-quarter touchdown and the game's first lead change. The defense also benefitted from the Cardinals' 13:40 time-of-possession advantage due in part to the offense's ability to convert eight of 13 third-down opportunities and its 13-play, 85-yard scoring drive that devoured 9:13 of the third quarter en route to running back Larry Centers' nine-yard touchdown reception from Krieg that produced lead change number three. Centers and Hearst were the day's offensive catalysts. The former registered 85 total yards with seven receptions for 52 yards and four rushes for 33 yards and his first rushing touchdown of the season. The latter contributed 92 total yards with 79 rushing yards on 24 carries and 13 yards receiving on three catches that included the pivotal touchdown, his first career six-pointer through the air.

✔Series Notes
Cardinals have won five of the past six meetings ... Cardinal sweeps in 1993–94 ... nevertheless, Washington has won 31 of the last 42 games in the series dating to 1937 ... prior to the '93–94 sweeps, the last time the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice in the same season was 1974 ... the Cards' victory in the first 1993 meeting, a 17–10 triumph, was their first success at RFK Stadium since 1978 following 14 consecutive losses ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988, a 30–21 win September 25, was their first home-field success in Arizona and snapped a seven-game Redskin series winning streak ... Washington won eight of the next nine encounters.

Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League to its storied past in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes."

Super Bowl XXX, the most-watched television program in history, was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a spectacular setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1996 will be 73,273. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made over the past eight years.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected five years ago by Arizona State's dramatic six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and replay officials, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

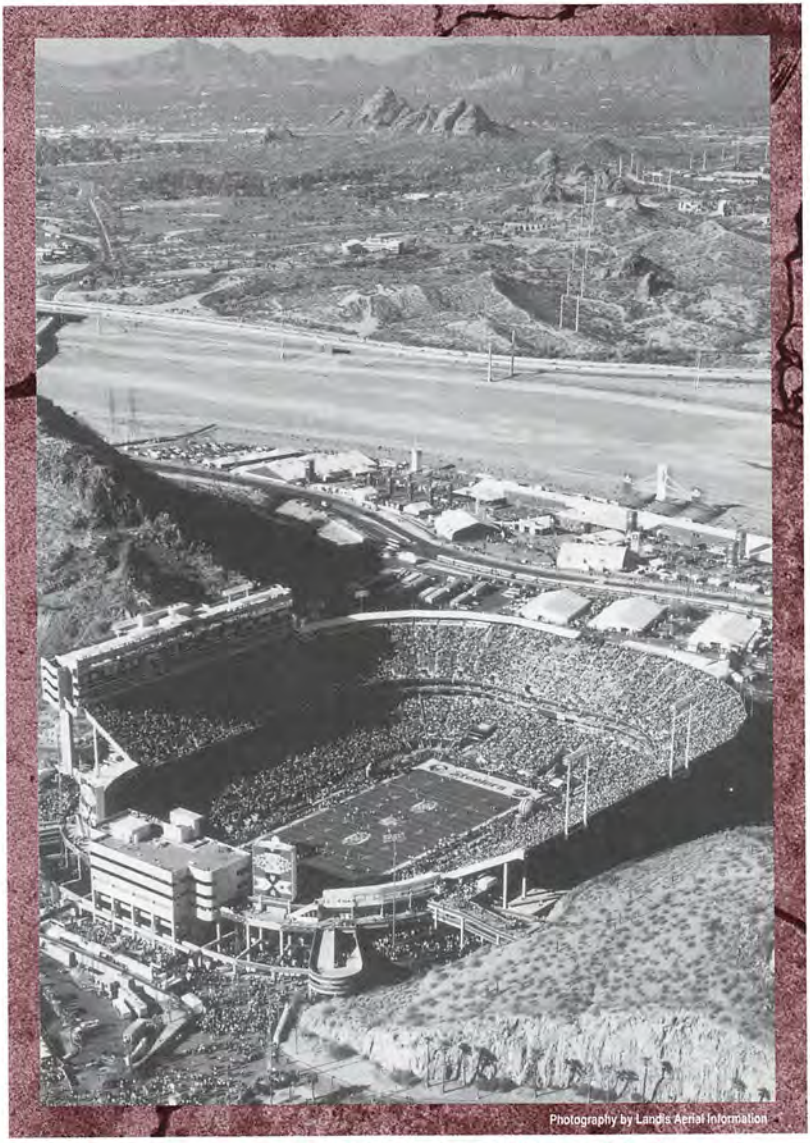
Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's arrival in Arizona.



Sun Devil Stadium was the site of Super Bowl XXX pitting the eventual champion Dallas Cowboys and Pittsburgh Steelers on January 28, 1996.

Training Facility

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

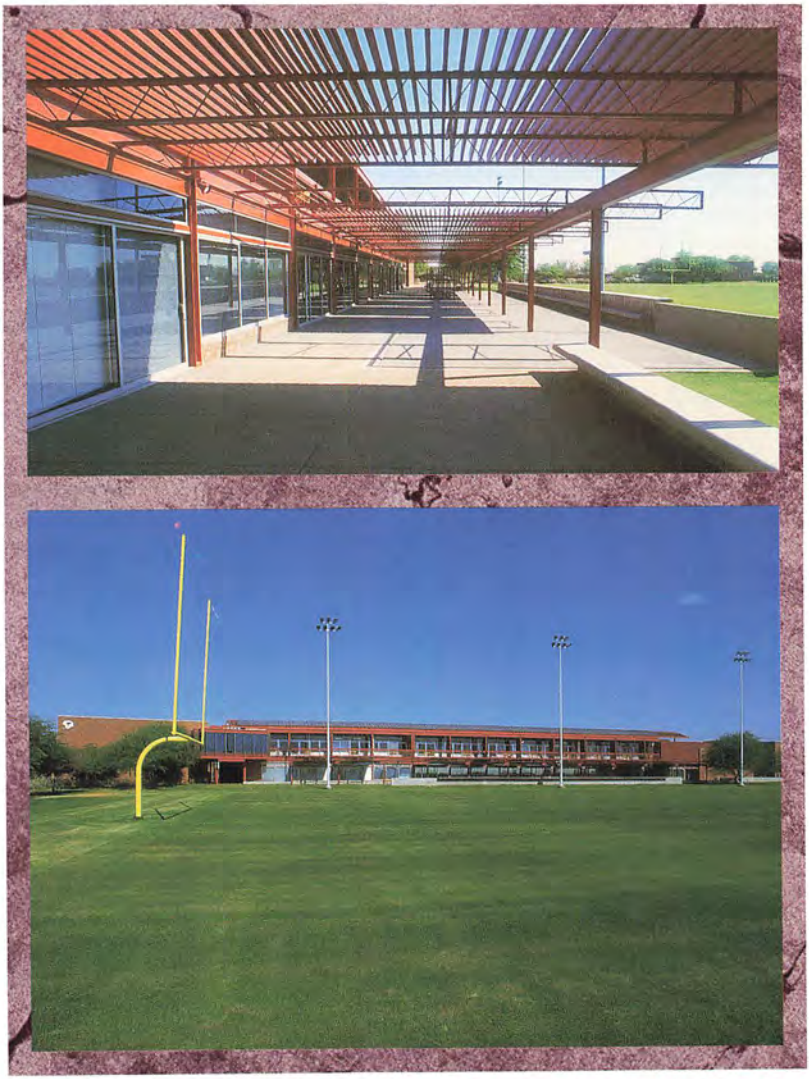
The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.



The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has won numerous architectural and landscape awards since it became the team's home in 1990.
